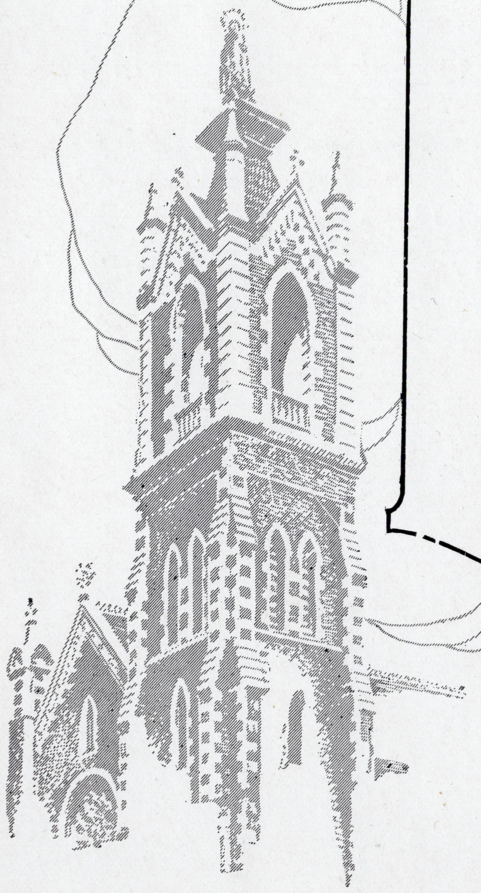
OMNIA PRO DEO



Let nothing disturb thee,
Nothing affright thee;
All things are passing;
God never changeth;
Patient endurance
Attaineth to all things;
Who God possesseth
In nothing is wanting;
Alone God sufficeth.

—Saint Teresa of Avila.

IT IS the purpose of the 1940 TOWER Board to record in this book the memories of many lasting friendships and the passing of many happy hours in the Cathedral High School.

MAY THE reader enjoy these pages and not be too critical of their literary worth. And in the years to come, may this TOWER serve the members of the Class of 1940 as a memento of the four happiest years of their lives.

Foreword

MR. JOSEPH F. LECHNYR

Dedication

To

MR. JOSEPH F. LECHNYR

Whose Name Signifies Perseverance

WE, THE members of the Class 1940, respectfully dedicate this issue of the TOWER. To one who has given us such inspiration to greater effort as has Mr. Lechnyr, the dedication of this book is indeed small tribute. Despite the fact, however, that our TOWER is far removed from perfection, it is the result of our painstaking labors; and we present it in honor of Mr. Lechnyr—four years our counselor, four years our friend, four years our teacher.

HIS EXCELLENCY, MOST REVEREND MATTHEW FRANCIS BRADY, D.D.

Tribute to

OUR MOST REVEREND BISHOP

We eagerly reserve this page as a tribute to His Excellency, Most Reverend Matthew Francis Brady, D.D.—a man in every way worthy of the title he bears.

With admiration for his achievements as Vermont's Catholic Prelate, we pledge ourselves to uphold the principles which he has set before us. Our beloved Bishop is a most ardent supporter of Catholic Action, and in line with this noble movement he has already brought about in his diocese many things having to do with the spread of a highly motivating Catholic influence. Foremost among Bishop Brady's accomplishments has been the erection of several more Catholic schools, by which His Excellency makes available to many additional students the advantages of a truly Christian education.

With such fine examples of Catholic Action set before us, may we ever remain loyal to the teachings presented to us by Bishop Brady. And may we strive for the Catholic ideals of life as zealously and energetically as his Excellency does for the preservation of his flock.

RIGHT REVEREND MONSIGNOR PATRICK C. BRENNAN, P.A., V.G.

Tribute to

MONSIGNOR BRENNAN

As head of the Cathedral parish, Monsignor Brennan has proven himself immensely interested in the welfare of the students of Cathedral High School. He is present at all the school activities, imparting on them, as it were, his spiritual blessing. We are proud and happy to have him among us at our affairs, for we realize that if he can give of his valuable time to attend, then they must indeed be worth while.

Our four years at Cathedral High School have brought us into close proximity with the priestly virtues and high ideals of Monsignor Brennan, and we respectfully dedicate this page to him as a tribute of the loyalty and faithfulness which he will always receive from the members of the Class of 1940.

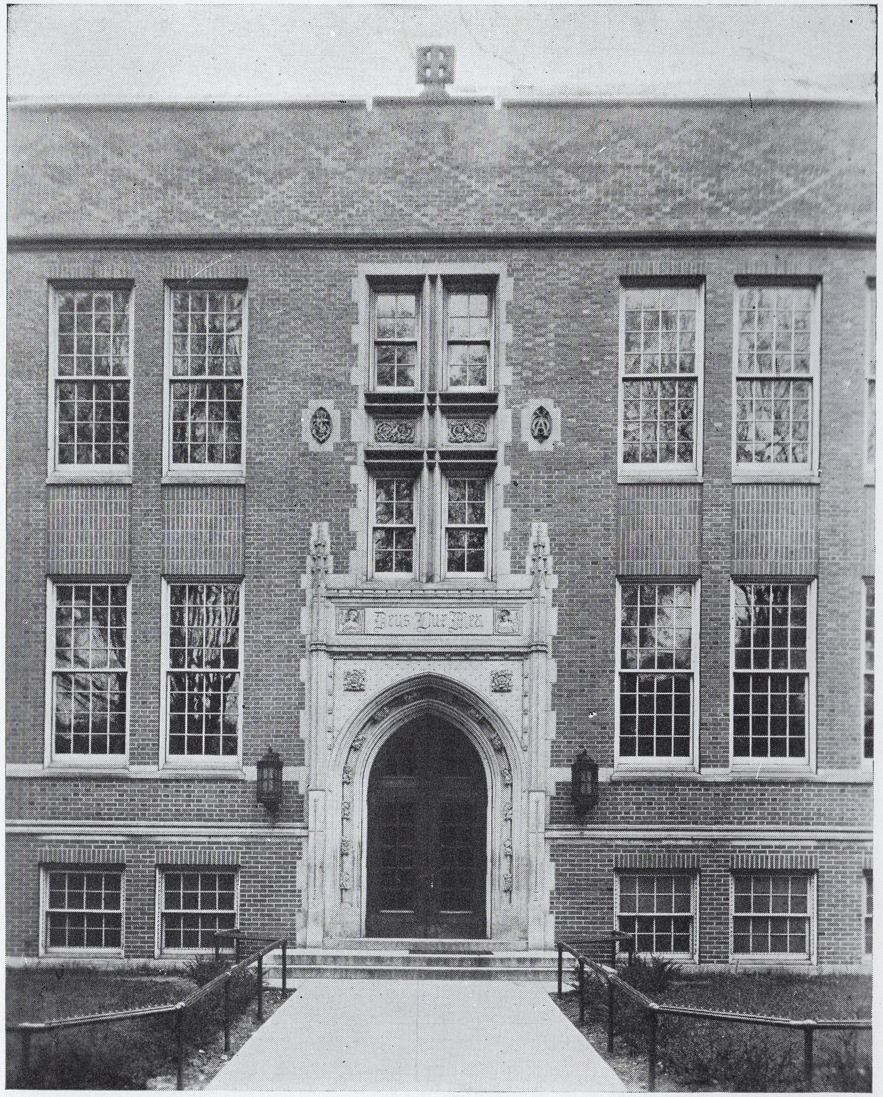
REVEREND WILLIAM D. FOX

In Appreciation to

FATHER FOX

Here indeed is our chief regret in leaving Cathedral High School. It is with the deepest sorrow that we part from a friend who has persevered with us in all our troubles and united with us in all our joys. Father Fox has guided us as no one else could; he has shouldered the responsibility of our future with the willingness and skill that have made him a beloved principal.

We solemnly promise to conduct our lives in a manner that will reflect most creditably on Father Fox, for words alone cannot express our gratitude to the man who will live in our hearts forever.



FACULTY

A Few Words of Thanks

TO OUR FACULTY

We pen here a brief but sincere mark of appreciation to those who so faithfully and carefully guided us through our four years of high school.

The members of our faculty have been more than teachers. They made certain, of course, that our minds were trained in science and literature in order that we might be assured of a good living; but religious and laymen alike were even more solicitous for the education of our souls, so that we might receive life everlasting.

The training we received from our teachers carries with it a certain indelible mark which will always designate us as their own, and we are proud to have it so.

The Precept of Silence

I know you: solitary griefs,
Desolate passions, aching hours,
I know you: tremulous beliefs,
Agonized hopes, ashen flowers!

The winds are sometimes sad to me;
The starry spaces, full of fear:
Mine is the sorrow on the sea,
And mine the sigh of places drear.

Some players upon plaintive strings
Publish their wistfulness abroad:
I have not spoken of these things,
Save to one man, and unto God.

—Lionel Johnson.

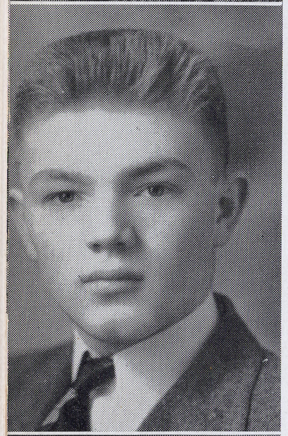
DONALD THOMAS AKEY "Don"

Honors: Varsity Basketball (3, 4); Jayvee Basketball (3); Class Basketball (1, 2); Jayvee Baseball (3); Tennis (1); Varsity Golf (4); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Business Manager, TOWER (4); Class Nite Committee (2); Commencement Usher (3); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1); TOWER Day Committee (4); Honor Student.

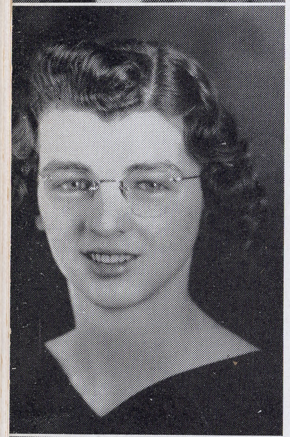
Meet our contribution to social circles and the Business Manager of this year's TOWER. But Don has more assets than these; he is a prominent member of our varsity basketball squad, a fine golfer, and a tennis player of note. Don hits the books hard, too, and is headed for a prominent future in whatever field he casts his talents.



DEAL TABOR ASELTINE "Deal"

Honors: Jayvee Basketball (3); Class Basketball (4); Class Nite (1); Mission Unit (2, 3); Honor Student.

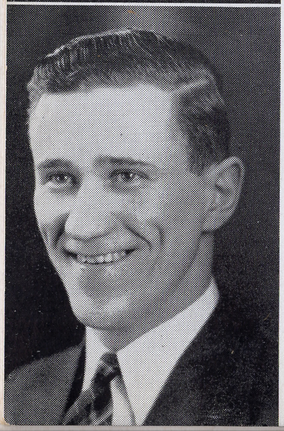
Deal is one of those very few students who have the ability to learn in a short time. Besides being unusually adept in his studies, he has shown an uncanny eye for the basket as one of Cathedral's Jayvee basketball players. Deal's character and friendliness will carry him to the top in life's big battles.



DOROTHY THERESA BANCROFT "Dot"

Honors: Class Basketball (2, 3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Office Force (4); Class Nite (1, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2, 3, 4); Bowling Team (2); Mission Unit (2).

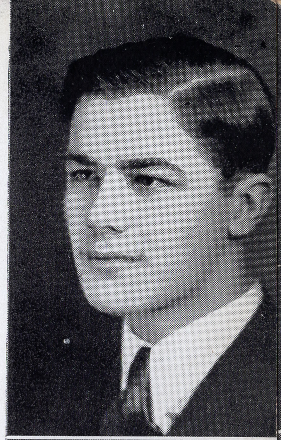
Dot is a most docile and obliging lass, for her charming manner makes her always ready to assist whole-heartedly in any practical undertaking. She is liked by her co-students because of her willingness to help them to the best of her ability when they're in difficulty. Entirely minus a selfish nature, Dot will soon find a steady place for herself out in the world.



ROBERT JAMES BARRY "Bob"

Honors: Softball (1, 2); Glee Club (2, 3); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Class Nite Committee (1); Class Nite (3); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3); New England Music Festival (2).

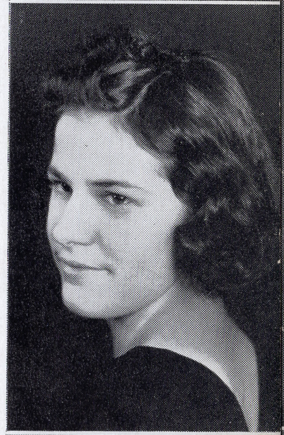
Bob is the personification of politeness, and he is as dependable as he is polite. Discipline and tardy slips are unknown to him, so it goes without saying that he is in great favor with the teachers. All his classmates like him, for he has a good word for everybody. May your future be a bright one, Bob.



EDWARD GEORGE BERNARD "Eddie"

Honors: Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Band (3, 4); All-State Band (4); Orchestra (4); Glee Club (2, 3); All-State Glee Club (3); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3, 4); Class Nite Committee (2); Class Nite (1, 2, 4); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Assistant Editor, School Paper (3); New England Music Festival (2).

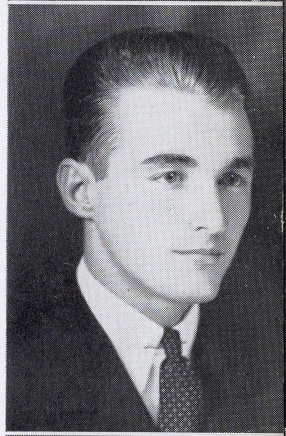
You've seen people who are simply bubbling over with ideas and ambition. Well, Eddie is one of them. He is an honor newspaper carrier, and he won a trip to the World's Fair by getting the greatest number of subscriptions. Another dependable member of the band, he is one of Mr. Lechnyr's ablest musicians. We predict great things for Eddie.



MARIE RITA BLANCHARD "Rita"

Honors: Glee Club (1, 3); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Office Force (4); Class Nite (4); Vermont Music Festival (1, 3); Mission Unit (2); Librarian (4); Honor Student.

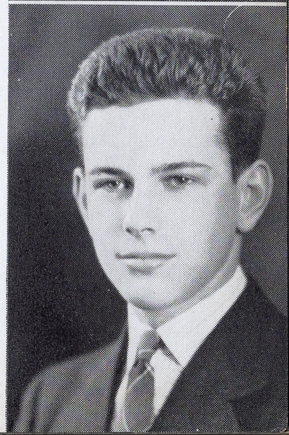
Culture and intelligence are exemplified in Rita. Infectious laughter and cheer are also hers, so it is no wonder that she has enjoyed such popularity among her classmates. For her own security, Rita has learned the three R's and all other school subjects with finality and dispatch. We're not worrying about your future, Rita.



JOHN JOSEPH BOLIER "Cheese"

Honors: Varsity Basketball (3, 4); Jayvee Basketball (1, 2); Class Basketball (1, 2); Jayvee Baseball (1, 2); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Nite Committee (4); Class Nite (1, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2); Guard of Honor, Bishop Rice's Funeral (2).

For the past two years, Cheese has been a member of our championship basketball teams, and this year he won himself a position on the first string. In addition to his hoop prowess, he has specialized in being our master of ceremonies in Class Nite performances. Cheese's hard work and ever-present smile will bring him the best that life has to offer.



ARTHUR JOSEPH BOMBARD "Artie"

Honors: Class Basketball (2, 3, 4); Tennis (3, 4); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Glee Club (2); Assistant Business Manager, TOWER (4); Class Nite Committee (2, 3); Office Force (3); Commencement Usher (3); Class Officer (1); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3).

Artie is a happy-go-lucky chap who is bothered not at all by cares and troubles. This attitude has not proven a disadvantage to him, however, for he is a good student and has many friends. The best of luck, Artie.

RENE WILFRED BONNETTE "Rene"

Honors: Class Basketball (1); Band (2, 3, 4); All-State Band (3, 4); Orchestra (3, 4); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3, 4); Class Nite (1, 2, 4); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Guard of Honor, Bishop Rice's Funeral (2); New England Music Festival (2); Honor Student.

A reserved and modest type of fellow, Rene has a winning smile and a friendly personality. Cathedral's musical organizations will be much weaker after Rene graduates, for he has been one of the best saxophonists in the band and orchestra for the past two years. Rene can surely be relied upon to bring honor and credit to old Cathedral.

FRANCIS JOSEPH CAIN "Fat"

Honors: Varsity Basketball (3, 4); Jayvee Basketball (2, 3); Varsity Baseball (3, 4); Jayvee Baseball (2); Golf (2, 4); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); TOWER Board (4); Class Nite Committee (2, 3); Commencement Usher (3); Class Officer (2); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Guard of Honor, Bishop Rice's Funeral (2); Class Basketball (1).

This good-looking, well-dressed young man is truly a student and an athlete. Fat hovers near the top in all school subjects, has been a member of our excellent hoop teams for the past two years, and is also a prominent member of the baseball team. Such versatility is an indication of prosperous years to come.

FRANCES THERESA CALARCO "Fran"

Honors: Class Nite (1, 3, 4); Glee Club (1); Office Force (4); Commencement Usher (3); Mission Unit (2); Librarian (4); Bowling Team (2); Honor Student.

Quiet, unobtrusive, studious. Only three words, but they cover a multitude of good qualities and well describe our Frances. If we were all like this girl, the good teachers wouldn't have to worry about unprepared lessons, and there would be no such thing as a discipline assignment. So long, Frances; the best of luck to you!

GEORGE KENNETH CARTY "Whizzer"

Honors: Varsity Basketball (2, 3, 4); Jayvee Basketball (1, 2); Class Basketball (1); Jayvee Baseball (1); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Band (1, 2, 3, 4); Orchestra (3, 4); School Concert (3); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (2); New England Music Festival (2).

Smallness of stature hasn't impeded Whizzer in the least. As a matter of fact, he teamed up with many huge fellows last year to bring Cathedral its first State Basketball Championship in seventeen years, and he is also a member of this year's championship squad. The school band has also profited from Whizzer's abilities, for he has been one of its best trumpeters for the past four years. You're headed for the best, Whizzer.

ROBERT JOSEPH CLAVELLE "Frenchy"

Honors: Jayvee Basketball (3); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Jayvee Baseball (1, 2, 3); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Office Force (3); Basketball Usher (4); Class Nite (1, 4); Mission Unit (2, 3); Honor Student.

Frenchy has qualities galore. He is an excellent student and a good athlete, and he has a wonderful personality. Those are tops wherever you go. His good nature and friendly ways have brought him many friends. Go to it, Frenchy; you've got what it takes.

EILEEN KENNEDY COLLINS "Eileen"

Honors: Orchestra (2, 3, 4); All-State Orchestra (3, 4); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3, 4); TOWER Board (4); TOWER Day Committee (4); Captain, Drum Majors (4); Class Nite (2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (2); Manager, School Store (4); Bowling Team (2); New England Music Festival (2); Server, Mothers' Club Card Party (4).

Here's an up-and-coming young lady, blessed with the sunniest of dispositions and a wonderful spirit of cooperation. Although she spent only three years with us, Eileen has contributed much to the school, including her violin playing in the orchestra and her feature writing for this TOWER. In the heart of each of her classmates is a special place of affection for genial Eileen.

JAMES STEBBINS COLLINS "Jimmy"

Honors: Mission Unit (1, 2); Photographic Editor, TOWER (4).

If you hear a sudden "click" somewhere around, you'll know that Jimmy is taking pictures again. He is Photographic Editor of the TOWER, and the fine candid camera section in the book is an exhibition of his expert workmanship. Jimmy's ambition and capability are indications of his future success.

WILLIAM PAUL COONEY "Billy"

Honors: Class Nite (1); Mission Unit (2, 3); Honor Student.

Billy has been our enjoyable companion in an all-too-short high school life. This vivacious, jovial son of Erin keeps us feeling happy and drives away all sorts of melancholy. May a high place in life be yours, Billy.

RUTH HESPER COTE "Coty"

Honors: Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); All-State Glee Club (4); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Class Nite Commitee (3); Office Force (2, 4); Commencement Usher (3); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (2); New England Music Festival (2); Chairman, Semi-Formal Dance (4); School Concert (3).

Ruth is a musically-minded young lady, gifted with a heavenly soprano voice which promises to do great things for her. Besides her singing abilities, we number among her good points, loyalty and pleasantness. Possessed of a joyous nature, she keeps us all in a happy frame of mind. She likes everybody, and everybody likes her. Can more be required?

WILLIAM CHARLES DENNING "Bill"

Honors: Class Basketball (1); Mission Unit (1, 2).

Bill doesn't say much, but what he does say really means something; no idle chatter from him. He has been popular with both teachers and students through his entire high school course, and we feel certain that Bill's popularity will continue in the successful future that he has ahead.

MARCEL THOMAS DesVERGNES "Marcel"

Honors: Class Nite (1, 2, 3); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Softball (1, 2, 3); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3).

Instead of striving for fame as an athlete, Marcel has preferred to be a modest onlooker. In the matter of commercial subjects, however, it's a different story, for he is one of our shorthand and bookkeeping experts. May your skill continue, Marcel.

FIORETTA BERNADETTE D'ORAZIO "Fi"

Honors: Class Basketball (2); Orchestra (1, 2, 3, 4); All-State Orchestra (2, 3, 4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3, 4); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (2); Bowling Team (2); Server, Mothers' Club Party (4); New England Music Festival (2); Honor Student.

Keen and sharp-witted, and always at the top in her studies, Fi has obtained for herself a place of esteem in the minds of her teachers and classmates. She plays sweet notes on the violin, too, and forms an integral part of the school orchestra. In short, a popular girl and an ideal student.

CHARLES WILLIAM DUBIE "Chuck"

Honors: Class Basketball (3); Glee Club (3); Class Nite Committee (4); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2); Guard of Honor, Bishop Rice's Funeral (2).

A hard worker indeed. After school in the afternoon, Chuck does lots of odd jobs around the building, and on Saturday he earns a good day's pay by working for one of our local firms. Chuck's ambition and personality guarantee him loads of success.

WILLIAM EDWARD DUGGAN "Skinny"

Honors: Class Basketball (3); Softball (2, 3); Glee Club (3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Guard of Honor, Bishop Rice's Funeral (2).

Unlike the average high school student, Skinny seems to rejoice in forsaking athletics for hard work. Far be it from us, however, to try to divert him from this good habit, for anyone with such an inclination to toil has no need to worry about the future.

THERESA MARGARET DUQUETTE "Terry"

Honors: Class Basketball (2, 3); Glee Club (3, 4); All-State Glee Club (4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Assistant Business Manager, TOWER (4); TOWER Day Committee (4); Class Nite Committee (3, 4); Office Force (4); Commencement Usher (3); Class Officer (2); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (3, 4); Mission Unit (2); President, Girls' Glee Club (4); Bowling Team (2); Server, Mothers' Club Card Party (4).

We herewith present our class jitterbug. Terry's restless little feet have beaten a path straight to the hearts of all who know her. Her assets, however, don't stop with her dancing abilities; an ever-ready laughter and a winning personality have made her the center of many a jolly group. Terry has a kind word for everybody, so her friends are many, her enemies, none.

BERTHA JOAN OF ARC FAOUR "Fuzzy"

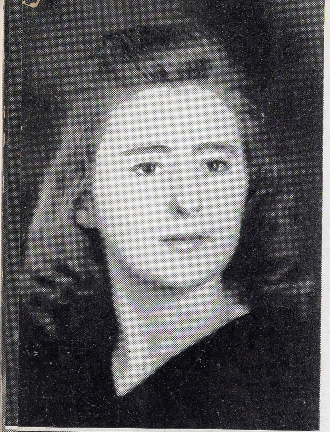
Honors: Glee Club (1); Grind Editor, TOWER (4); Class Nite Committee (1, 2, 3, 4); Office Force (4); Commencement Usher (3); Class Officer (1, 2, 3); Class Nite (2, 3, 4); Mission Unit Representative (2); Server, Mothers' Club Card Party (4); Honor Student.

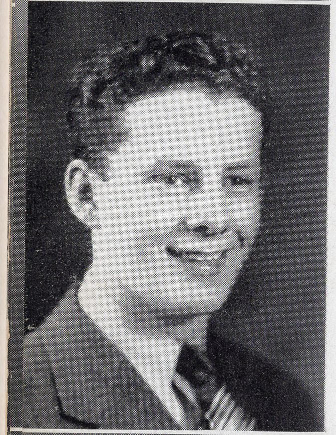
Fuzzy has a happy-go-lucky disposition and an outstanding personality. She sings, too; at almost any time of the day you can hear the hale, hearty, and cheerful voice of this gal. But here's something else: Joan is the author of all the girls' grinds in this book (except her own). The undertaking of such a task shows her helpful attitude, and the high caliber of the grinds displays her literary abilities. Your success in life is assured, Joan.



CATHERINE CECELIA FOOS "Foosie"

Honors: Glee Club (1); Office Force (4); Class Nite (2, 4); Vermont Music Festival (1); Mission Unit (2); Bowling Team (2); Manager, School Candy Store (4).

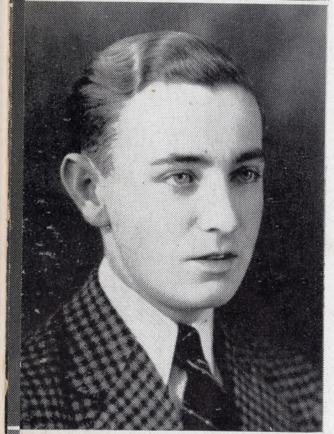
When Foosie is around, everybody present is assured of a good time. Her humor, laughter, and good nature make her a welcome addition to any group; and her smile, which starts 'way down in her heart, completely banishes all gloom. No wonder she's popular!



JOHN DONLIN FURKEY "Jack"

Honors: Glee Club (1, 2, 3); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Class Nite (1, 2, 4); Vermont Music Festival (1 , 2, 3).

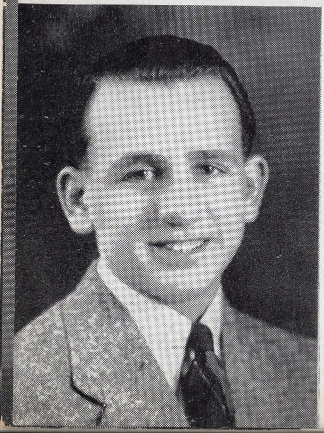
In his four years with us, Jack has been an excellent student and a credit to the school. The perfect gentleman at all times, he takes his work very seriously and will be an asset to any employer who is fortunate enough to acquire his services. We hope to see you often, Jack.



JOHN ARTHUR GADHUE "Jack"

Honors: Class Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Softball (4); Glee Club (2, 3); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Office Force (3); Class Officer (1); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Assistant Manager, Basketball (3); Vermont Music Festival (3); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3).

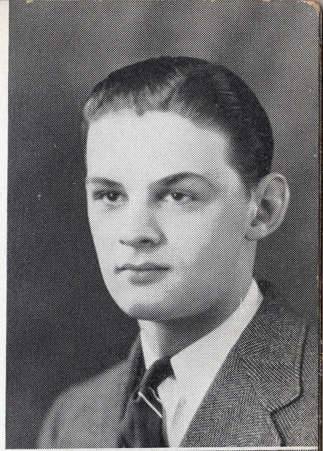
Although not an active member of any of our teams or organizations, Jack does his bit by giving his support to all of them. He helped the basketball team in a material way by his work as assistant manager during his Junior year and is now one of its most ardent followers. The best of futures, Jack.



CARL MARIO GAMBERO "Carl"

Honors: Class Basketball (1); Class Nite (1); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Honor Student.

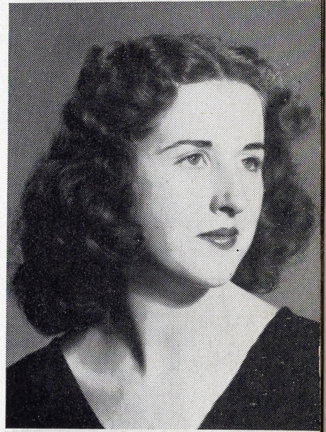
Quiet and easy-going, Carl has made himself many friends among the members of our class. He goes about his business calmly but effectively, and he causes trouble for no one. We have enjoyed knowing him, and we will always remember the pleasant moments which we spent in his company.



JOHN JAMES GANNON "John"

Honors: Class Basketball (1); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); All-State Glee Club (4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Class Nite Committee (1); Office Force (2); Basketball Usher (4); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (2, 3); Guard of Honor, Bishop Rice's Funeral (2); New England Music Festival (2).

John is one of those Cathedral students whom you see at all school activities. He is especially interested in our basketball teams, lending his strong voice to the roar of the crowd every time Cathedral scores a basket. He has also brightened up many of our classes with his keen sense of humor. So long, John.



RITA AGNES GLEASON "Rita"

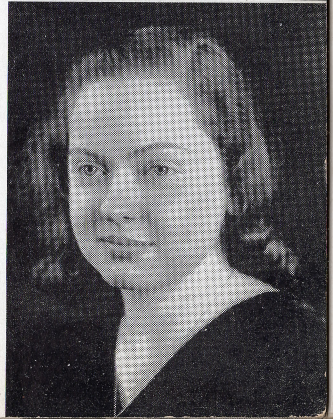
Honors: Server, Mothers' Club Party (4); Class Nite Usher (4); Honor Student.

For one who has been at Cathedral for her Senior year only, this girl has surely won for herself the good graces of all concerned. Continually humming some current tune, Rita is rarely seen in other than a merry mood. With such qualities as generosity, kindness, jollity, and intelligence, one can't go wrong; and Rita has all these.

RITA ROSE GOULET "Rita"

Honors: Girls' Varsity Basketball (3, 4); Jayvee Basketball (2); Class Basketball (2, 3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); All-State Glee Club (4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Office Force (4); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (2); Bowling Team (2); Server, Mothers' Club Card Party (4); New England Music Festival (2).

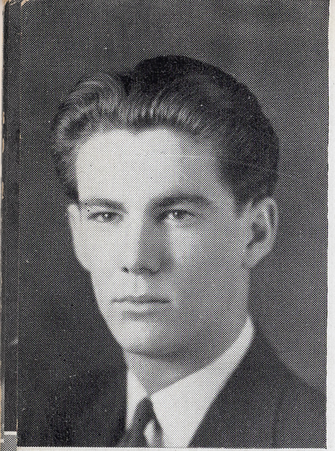
Rita is one of the main reasons why the girls' basketball team at Cathedral was so successful this year; her fine play at guard will be greatly missed when another season rolls around. When not winning basketball games, Rita is busy dispensing generosity, for she would give her last cent to an indigent friend. You're all right, Rita; may your future be a happy one.



MARY CAROL GRIFFIN "Carol"

Honors: Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Office Force (4); Class Nite (3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (2); Server, Mothers' Club Card Party (4); New England Music Festival (2).

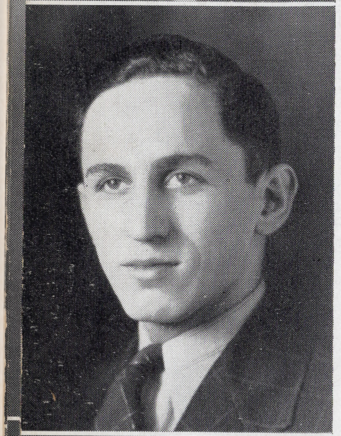
In spite of her flame-colored tresses, Carol is a quiet and good-natured Irish colleen. She is never left guessing on any important issue because she believes in that old adage, "yours for the asking." And Carol is the answer to any teacher's prayer, for she is faithful to her studies and is never troublesome in class. With these qualities, plus great faith and perseverance, our friend Carol is sure to be a success in life.



MARC VINCENT GUTCHELL "Marc"

Honors: Class Basketball (4); Varsity Baseball (2, 3, 4); Jayvee Baseball (1); Golf (4); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Glee Club (3); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Assistant Business Manager, TOWER (4); Class Nite Committee (1, 3); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Commencement Usher (3); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); TOWER Day Committee (4).

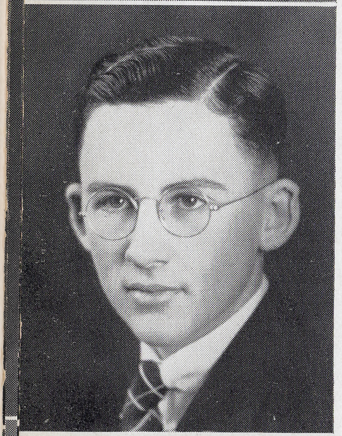
By his unruly hair ye shall know him. But Marc is distinguished in other ways, too; the fame of his left arm has gone abroad into all the State, for he has used it many times to pitch Cathedral to victory on the diamond. More power to you, Marc.



FRANK CLEMENT HAMMOND "Buster"

Honors: Class Nite (1, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3).

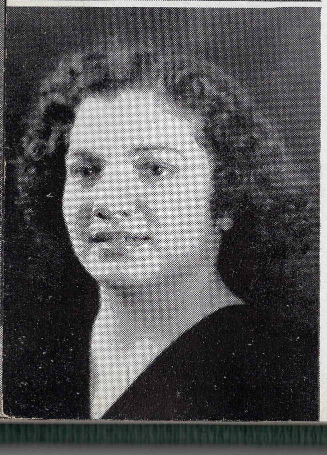
A sincere, honest, and industrious young man, Buster mingles readily with a crowd and makes friends easily. Although he is very active around the school, he doesn't let anything interfere with his school work. We're looking for big things from you, Buster.



WILLIAM PETER HAMMOND "Billie"

Honors: Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Band (2, 3, 4); All-State Band (4); Orchestra (2, 3, 4); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (2, 3); Guard of Honor, Bishop Rice's Funeral (2); New England Music Festival (2); Green Mountain Boys' State (3); Senior Choir (2, 3, 4); All-State Glee Club (3); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3, 4).

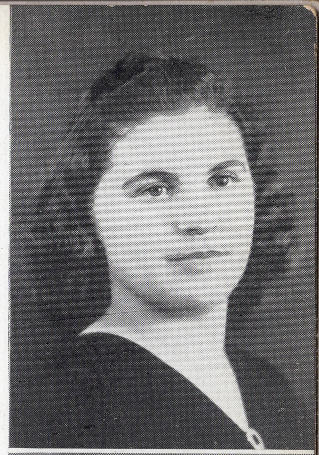
Here is one of the friendliest members of our class. Billie has a big smile for everybody and never raises his voice above the natural tone. He pays a lot of attention to his studies and to his work in the band and orchestra, yet he finds time to back our basketball and baseball teams in all their contests. There's a happy and successful future in store for you, Billie.



JUANITA BARBARA HANDY "Barb"

Honors: Glee Club (1); Class Nite (1, 3); Mission Unit (2); Vermont Music Festival (1); Honor Student.

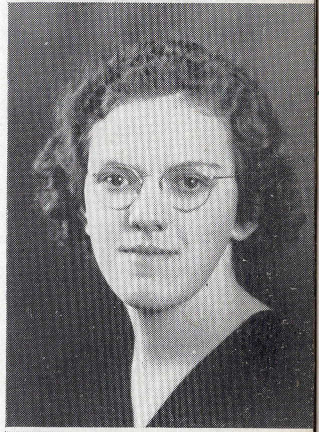
Barb might well be dubbed the class sage. Intelligence, wisdom, and amiability are characteristics of this studious young lady. For all her seriousness, though, she has a surprisingly abundant supply of humor and wit so often lacking in many a studious girl. Add to these assets Barb's generous nature, and you have a girl who can take her place with the best of them.



VERONICA MAE HART "Veronica"

Honors: Band (3, 4); All-State Band (4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Class Nite Usher (4); Class Nite (1, 2, 3); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2, 3, 4); New England Music Festival (2); Server, Mothers' Club Party (4); Photographic Editor, TOWER (4); Office Force (4); Commencement Usher (3).

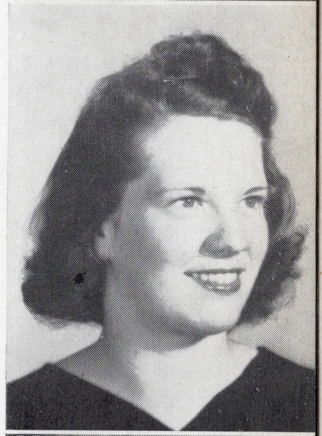
We have here a girl who takes a very serious attitude toward her studies and plays a very good clarinet in the school band. Please do not think, however, that Veronica doesn't enjoy the lighter things in life, for she is a fun-loving girl and can be seen at all ball games and socials. We're sure that there is a prominent place reserved for you out in the world, Veronica.



YVONNE MARY HILLIARD "Yvonne"

Honors: Mission Unit (2); Bowling Team (2); Class Nite (3, 4).

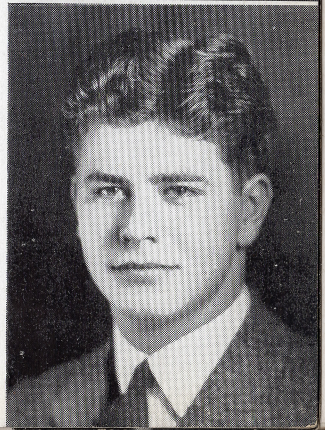
Yvonne doesn't believe in wasting time and energy saying unnecessary things. She is a girl of a few words; but when she talks, she really says something. Yvonne has a taste for the finer things of life, too, and is always ready to better her position. Keep going, Yvonne; you're on the way.



WINIFRED IRENE HUARD "Winnie"

Honors: Varsity Basketball (3); Class Basketball (2, 3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); All-State Glee Club (3); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Office Force (4); Commencement Usher (3); Class Nite Usher (4); Class Nite (1, 3); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (2); Bowling Team (2); New England Music Festival (2); Banner Carrier (4).

Here is a lively, cheery, and vivacious individual. Winnie's merry laughter and clear, sparkling voice may be heard any day ringing in gleeful vibration through the corridor. She has an awesome air of nonchalance, and her ability to dismiss cares and troubles with a shrug of the shoulders is recognized not without a little envy. Fare thee well, Winnie.



THOMAS JOSEPH KEIGHLEY "Tommy"

Honors: Class Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Jayvee Baseball (1, 2, 3); Tennis (1, 3, 4); Golf (4); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Band (1, 2, 3, 4); All-State Band (3, 4); Orchestra (1, 2, 3, 4); All-State Orchestra (2); Glee Club (2); School Concert (3); Class Nite Committee (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Guard of Honor, Bishop Rice's Funeral (2); New England Music Festival (2); Glee Club Accompanist (3, 4); Green Mountain Boys' State (3); Office Force (3); Commencement Usher (3); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3, 4); Class Officer (1, 3, 4); Honor Student.

Senior Class president, excellent student, skillful musician, good-looking; this is Tommy. A more popular chap never attended the school. One of his chief claims to fame is his equal ability at both piano and trumpet; during the past four years he has filled very important parts in the band and orchestra, and he has also contributed greatly to our Class Nite performances. Your future is a bright one, Tommy.

GORDON STEPHEN LEMAIRE "Gordie"

Honors: Softball (2, 3); Class Nite Committee (4); Office Force (2); Basketball Usher (4); Class Nite (2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (2, 3).

Dancer par excellence. At present, Gordie's specialty is the jitterbug, but he glides expertly in any form of the light fantastic. He is one of Winooski's contributions to the Class of 1940; and our neighboring city may well be proud of him, for he is a good student and a friendly classmate. Success awaits you, Gordie.

BERNARD FRANCIS LESAGE "Bernie"

Honors: Hockey (2); Softball (2); Class Nite (1, 2); Mission Unit (1, 2).

Here is another reason why our days at Cathedral have never been blue. Bernie's mischievous smile and natural wit have brightened up many a rainy day, and we know that he will be the cause of joy for many friends in the days to come. Keep smiling, Bernie.

RICHARD BRADFORD LUDWIG "Ludie"

Honors: Class Basketball (1); Class Nite (1, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Green Mountain Boys' State (3); Honor Student.

Ambitious, alert, and congenial is Ludie. He knows what he wants in life, and he doesn't intend to let any grass grow under his feet. Ludie doesn't make much of a fuss about what he is doing, but he really accomplishes more than those who make a lot of noise. Keep up the good work, Ludie.

ROBERT EDWARD LYNCH "Caddy"

Honors: Varsity Basketball (2, 3, 4); All-State (4); Jayvee Basketball (1); Class Basketball (1); Tennis (1); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Band (1); Grind Editor, TOWER (4); Class Nite Committee (2); Class Nite Usher (4); Commencement Usher (3); Class Nite (1, 2, 3); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Green Mountain Boys' State (3); Varsity Baseball (2, 3, 4); Jayvee Baseball (1).

Swish! The ball cleaves the net, and the scorer chalks up two more points for Cathedral by virtue of Caddy's unerring eye. His work as a member of our championship basketball teams of '39 and '40 is well known, he having climaxed his career by winning a berth on the All-State team at this year's tournament. Caddy also swats the ball hard for Cathedral's baseball team; and he is the author of all the TOWER grinds for one of the divisions of boys. May the best be yours, Caddy.

JAMES WILLIAM MADIGAN "Jim"

Honors: Varsity Basketball (3); Jayvee Basketball (1, 2); Class Basketball (1, 2); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Jayvee Baseball (3); Assistant Manager, Baseball (3); Manager, Baseball (4); Glee Club (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Class Nite Committee (2); Office Force (3); Basketball Usher (4); Commencement Usher (3); Class Nite Usher (4); Class Nite (1, 2, 3); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Guard of Honor, Bishop Rice's Funeral (2); Honor Student.

Smiling Jim is one of the most popular members of our class. Besides being so honored, he has also played a lot of very good basketball for the Cathedral Jayvee outfit. We are thankful to be numbered among your friends, Jim, and may we be fortunate enough to meet you often in later life.

CONSTANCE LORRAINE MALLON "Conny"

Honors: Varsity Basketball (3, 4); Class Basketball (2, 3, 4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); All-State Glee Club (4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Office Force (4); Commencement Usher (3); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (2); Bowling Team (2); New England Music Festival (2); Server, Mothers' Club Party (4).

Conny is a girl with plenty of personality-plus. One sunny smile, one little word from her, and you are completely won over and ready to join the long line of ardent admirers who follow in her wake. Good-natured, courteous, and helpful is Conny. We thus present her to the folks out in the world, and we know she will please.

RAYMOND JOSEPH MARIO "Jigsaw"

Honors: Class Basketball (3); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); All-State Glee Club (4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Grind Editor, TOWER (4); Basketball Usher (4); Glass Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); New England Music Festival (2).

Jigsaw is the personification of both quietness and accomplishment. He talks so little that we hardly know the sound of his voice, but his fine work as one of the Grind Editors of the TOWER is proof that he really gets things done. Give 'em all you've got, Jigsaw.

JAMES FRANCIS MCCORMICK "Jimmie"

Honors: Class Basketball (3, 4); Varsity Baseball (3, 4); Jayvee Baseball (2); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Sports Editor, TOWER (4); Class Nite Committee (2); Class Nite Usher (4); Class Officer (2); Class Nite (1, 2); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3).

Here is an ambitious lad. Jim discovered that school work failed to take up all his energy, so he got himself a night position with a local firm. Our cheerful, witty Irishman doesn't intend to let any opportunities pass him by. He has also been one of the ace hurlers of our baseball team for the past two years. Go to it, Jim; your hard work will soon pay dividends.

EDWARD EMMET McGRATH "Ed"

Honors: Glee Club (2, 3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Class Nite (1, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (2); Mission Unit (2).

Ed's hard work in school and his experience in McGrath's grocery store should well fit him for any form of business that he chooses to enter. Possessed of a very friendly nature, he has much to look forward to. Work away, Ed.

RUTH MARION McGRATH "McGrath"

Honors: Class Basketball (2, 3); Glee Club (1); Commencement Usher (3); Class Nite (1, 4); Mission Unit (2); Bowling Team (2); Captain, Bowling Team (2); Captain, Varsity Basketball (3); Manager, School Store (4); Server, Mothers' Club Card Party (4).

We have nothing but praise for this Irish damsel, for she is certainly a doer of good works. Her ideal is that important commandment, "Love Thy Neighbor," and does she live up to it! Keep it up, Ruth, and may others follow your good example.

MARION MAGDALEN McGUIRE "Marion"

Honors: Glee Club (1, 2); Class Nite (1, 4); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); New England Music Festival (2).

Not often do we find a young lady as timid and reserved as Marion. Her voice, which is sweet and pleasing, is seldom raised above a whisper and is never engaged in idle gossip. Marion is one of those persons you like the minute you meet them. We are glad to have her among us, and we hope to meet her often in later life.

DONALD RICHARD McKENZIE "Don"

Honors: Class Nite Usher (4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3).

There wouldn't be much noise around the school if we were all like Don, for of all our students he probably says the least. He really accomplishes things, though, because in addition to his school work he has much to do at home. Don's quiet, pleasing manner has won him many friends, and they unite in wishing him the happy and successful future that he deserves.

ROBERT VICTOR MEROLA "Red"

Honors: Varsity Basketball (2, 3, 4); Captain, Varsity Basketball (4); All-State (2, 3, 4); All-New England (4); Class Basketball (1); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Nite Committee (2, 3); Commencement Usher (3); Class Officer (3); Class Nite (1); Mission Unit (1, 2); Guard of Honor, Bishop Rice's Funeral (2).

Here is the most outstanding basketball player in the State and the best hoopster ever to wear a Cathedral uniform. Many times have we seen Red dash out of a mêlée, dribble down the floor like a streak, and score two points for the Little Indians. Thrice All-State, and this year All-New England, Red paced his team to the State Title in 1939 and was captain of our 1940 championship five.

Besides his athletic abilities, Red has a wonderful faculty for making friends; he is as considerate of everyone in the school as he is of his own teammates. No wonder our parting with Red will be a sad one.

JAMES CHARLES MICHAUD "Jim"

Honors: Class Basketball (3); Mission Unit (2).

Jim is a very quiet and reserved sort of fellow; but he is a good looker-on, so to speak, and he lends his moral support to all our undertakings. May your future be happy, Jim.

RUTH MARION MILLETTE "Honey"

Honors: Class Basketball (2, 3); Glee Club (3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Assistant Business Manager, TOWER (4); TOWER Day Committee (4); Office Force (4); Commencement Usher (3); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (3, 4); Mission Unit (2); Bowling Team (2); Banner Bearer (4); Server, Mothers' Club Card Party (4); Honor Student.

The school would seem incomplete without Honey, for she is one of the most active girls in our class. Whenever there is anything to be done, she is always first in the line of volunteers; and her splendid work as Assistant Business Manager of the TOWER has materially assured its financial success. The utmost of prosperity, Honey.

WAYNE WILLIAM MILLS "Tex"

Honors: Class Basketball (1, 2, 4); Jayvee Baseball (2); Glee Club (3, 4); All-State Glee Club (4); Softball (1, 2, 3); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Art Editor, TOWER (4); Class Nite Committee (2); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3).

Besides being one of the Art Editors of this TOWER, Tex is also well known as swimming instructor and life guard at various bathing beaches in the State during the summer. Though he is only a high school boy, Tex will outstrip many a "pro" in any work he undertakes. Swim ahead, Wayne.

CLARENCE GERALD MONGEON "Clarence"

Honors: Glee Club (3, 4); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Class Nite (4); Vermont Music Festival (3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Honor Student.

Another loyal follower of old Cathedral. Clarence has backed our teams through thick and thin and has always been ready to lend a hand in any activity. He is also one of our best students, and we know that he will be a credit to his school in the years to come.

ROSE ANNA NANNA "Rosie"

Honors: Glee Club (1, 2); Office Force (4); Commencement Usher (3); Class Nite (1, 2, 3); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2); Mission Unit (2); Server, Mothers' Club Card Party (4); New England Music Festival (2); Honor Student.

They say that when a girl is physically attractive and possesses a high intelligence quotient, she hasn't much to worry about. Rosie, then, is all set, because she is heavily endowed with the above-mentioned qualities. She is destined for a bright future, this laughing Italian maid.

EDMOND ELI PARKER "Eddie"

Honors: Class Basketball (4); Softball (4).

One of our traveling school chums, Eddie comes to us every day from Grand Isle. Although we don't see much of him after school, his work shows that he puts in many hours of serious study. Eddie has endeared himself to all, and we hope that the distance of his home from Burlington will not prevent our seeing him often after graduation.

KENNETH NORMAN PECOR "Red"

Honors: Class Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Softball (1, 4); Band (1, 2, 3); Orchestra (3); All-State Orchestra (3); School Concert (3); Class Nite (1, 4); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2, 3); Mission Unit (2, 3); New England Music Festival (2); Green Mountain Boys' State (3).

The color of Red's hair belies his disposition, for he is as meek as a lamb. As if to assure everybody that he and his hair have nothing in common, Red carries a broad smile at all times. When not busy with his studies, he delights his friends with his expert drum-playing. May the best be yours, Red.

ROBERT JOSEPH POIRIER "Bob"

Honors: Varsity Baseball (3, 4); Jayvee Baseball (1, 2); Hockey (1, 2, 3, 4); Captain, Hockey (4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Honor Student.

Bob is a bashful youth, but when you have penetrated his exterior shyness you will find the noblest of qualities. Besides being one of our best students, he has been one of the main cogs on Cathedral's hockey teams for the past four years. We are proud to call you our own, Bob.

BERNARD PAUL QUENNEVILLE "Bernie"

Honors: Class Basketball (1, 2); Softball (2, 3); Class Nite (1); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Honor Student.

Bernie is a very bashful boy; but for him this is no liability, for his pleasantness and good humor counteract it and make many friends for him. Bernie is a regular fellow, and we wish him lots of luck.

BERNARD PAUL REMILY "Bern"

Honors: Class Nite (1, 4); Mission Unit (1).

Although Bern is one of those quiet boys, he pays attention to all that is going on and profits therefrom. His contact with the world of business in his early-morning work will stand him in good stead when he tackles life's big jobs. Keep plugging, Bern.

MARY RITA REMILY "Rita"

Honors: Glee Club (2, 3, 4); All-State Glee Club (3); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3, 4); Class Nite Committee (2, 4); Office Force (4); Commencement Usher (3); Class Nite (2, 3); Mission Unit (2); New England Music Festival (2); Honor Student.

If you hear someone singing sweet songs as of a nightingale, you'll know that Rita is exercising her lovely voice. Many times has she entertained us with her melodious tunes. Rita has a high scholastic record, too, but she is modest about all her abilities, preferring to praise the accomplishments of others. May smooth sailing be yours, Rita.

WILHELM AUGUSTUS REUSCHEL "Willie"

Honors: Class Basketball (1); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Cancert (3); Class Nite Committee (2); Office Force (3); Basketball Usher (4); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2); Guard of Honor, Bishop Rice's Funeral (2); New England Music Festival (2); All-State Glee Club (4).

Willie brought down the house in last fall's Class Nite presentation by his imitation of Betty Co-ed, and he keeps us in the happiest frame of mind at all times. There is no such word as gloom in his vocabulary, for he sees only the bright side of everything. You'll be a ray of sunshine to many, Willie.

JAMES THOMAS RILEY "Bud"

Honors: Varsity Basketball (3, 4); All-State (4); Jayvee Basketball (1, 2); Class Basketball (1, 2); Jayvee Baseball (1); Tennis (1, 3); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Nite Committee (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Nite Usher (3, 4); Commencement Usher (3); Class Officer (1, 4); Class Nite (1, 2); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Green Mountain Boys' State (3); Honor Student.

Meet another reason why Cathedral has been tops in basketball for the past two years. All-State this year, Bud's excellent play at guard kept many of our opponents' scores down among the teens. Scholastically, Bud has also been a shining example for others to follow, and we're sure that he will be a leader in all other walks of life.

VERNON ANTHONY ROCK "Blub"

Honors: Class Basketball (1, 2); Golf (1, 2); Softball (1); Band (2, 3, 4); Orchestra (2, 3, 4); Glee Club (2, 3); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3, 4); Basketball Usher (4); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Glee Club (2, 3); New England Music Festival (2); Assistant Manager, Baseball (2, 3).

Blub is another one of our musicians, being a three-year veteran of both band and orchestra. He takes his work seriously and is very deliberate in every detail, a good sign for anyone going out into the world today. Happy landing, Blub.

FRANCIS EDWARD SANBORN "Sammy"

Honors: Varsity Basketball (3); Jayvee Basketball (1, 2, 3); Class Basketball (1, 4); Tennis (1); Golf (4); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Glee Club (3, 4); All-State Glee Club (4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Class Nite Committee (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Commencement Usher (3); Vermont Music Festival (3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Cheer Leader (4).

Sammy's hair suggests a fiery disposition, but he is as docile as a child. He is extremely friendly, and his gay laughter is often heard coming from the midst of a group of students. During his four years with us, he has taken part in both class and varsity basketball, and he has been one of the principal factors in our Class Nite performances. Nothing but the best, Sammy.

JUNE ALICE SHANKS "June"

Honors: Class Basketball (2, 3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Office Force (4); Commencement Usher (3); Class Nite Usher (4); Class Officer (2, 3, 4); Class Nite (1, 2, 3); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1); Bowling Team (2); Manager, Class Basketball Team (2, 3); Banner Bearer (4); New England Music Festival (2); Server, Mothers' Club Card Party (4); Honor Student.

June's name heads the list in good sportsmanship. She is present at all activities and is always ready to lend a helping hand in any undertaking. She is an excellent leader, too, as we well learned when she was president of our class as Juniors. June stands high on the approved list of both teachers and students and should go a long way in life's battles.

EUGENE WILLIAM SHEPARD "Eugene"

Honors: Glee Club (2, 3, 4); All-State Glee Club (4); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Class Nite (1, 4); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2); New England Music Festival (2); Senior Choir (4).

With his unassuming manner and pleasing personality, Eugene has become immensely popular among the members of our class. He is a very quiet boy, preferring the rôle of listener to that of talker, but we don't hold this against him. Eugene is a good scholar and a fine gentleman, too, so we aren't apprehensive about his future.

HENRY CROMWELL SMITH "Red"

Honors: Office Force (1, 2); Class Nite (4); Mission Unit (3); Business Manager, Scribbler (3); Honor Student.

Here is a dependable and studious young fellow. He isn't much on playing basketball or the like, but he goes to all the games and cheers our team to victory. Red burns a lot of midnight oil tending to his studies, and his hard work will surely pay dividends.

RUTH ELIZABETH SMITH "Smitty"

Honors: Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); All-State Glee Club (4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Class Nite Committee (1, 2, 3); Office Force (4); Commencement Usher (3); Class Nite Usher (4); Class Officer (4); Class Nite (2, 3); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (2); New England Music Festival (2).

Smitty is a very attractive and classy girl, and she has an individuality which has endeared her to her classmates through four enjoyable years. No school activity would be successful without her, for she is a great backer of all our doings. Smitty's special interest, however, is in her studies, at which she works very carefully and faithfully. Our best wishes, Smitty.

GASTON ANTHONY TESSIER "Gatty"

Honors: Class Basketball (1); Hockey (4); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Editor-in-Chief, TOWER (4); Office Force (3); Basketball Usher (4); Class Nite (1, 2); Class Nite Usher (4); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3); Perfect Attendance (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2); Guard of Honor, Bishop Rice's Funeral (2); TOWER Day Committee (4); New England Music Festival (2); Green Mountain Boys' State (3); Honor Student.

Next, the Editor-in-Chief of this year's TOWER. Appointing Gatty to this post was surely no mistake, for his great success in all things scholastic is almost uncanny. He has put an immense amount of work into the planning and producing of this book, and its excellence, literary and otherwise, is proof of his exceptional ability. An all 'round good fellow, Gatty is headed for a bright future.

VERGIL JOSEPH TOURVILLE "Vergie"

Honors: Mission Unit (1, 3).

This lad really deserves a good break in life, for he has had to travel far and wide for his education. Vergie commutes from South Hero every day and puts to shame those of us who live only a few blocks away and yet can't get to school on time. Vergie's perseverance augurs well for his future.

ROBERT SUMNER UPTON "Bob"

Honors: Class Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Softball (3, 4); Tennis (1); Band (1, 2, 3, 4); All-State Band (2); Orchestra (2, 3, 4); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); All-State Glee Club (3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2, 3, 4); New England Music Festival (2); Assistant Business Manager, TOWER (4); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Nite Committee (1, 3, 4); TOWER Day Committee (4); Senior Choir (4); Class Officer (1).

Bob's chief contribution to the school have been his trumpet playing in the band and orchestra and his beautiful singing in Glee Club and Class Nite performances. He also did his bit in the publication of this book by his loyal work as Assistant Business Manager. Your many friends will always remember you, Bob.

ERNEST ALBERT VIAU "Ernest"

Honors: Class Nite (1, 2); Perfect Attendance (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Honor Student.

A true scholar if there ever was one. Ernest is a shining example of what we call the ideal student. Besides excelling in his school work, he goes out of his way to help in all our activities. Opportunity awaits you, Ernest.

DONALD CHARLES VILLEMAIRE "Don"

Honors: Class Basketball (1); Softball (2, 4); Office Force (2, 3); Commencement Usher (3); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3).

During his four years of high school, Don has been a member of the work-before-pleasure group. At the end of the school day, he sacrificed his pleasures for a position as usher in a local theater. His hard work and quiet manners have won him many friends, and his ambition should assure him an abundance of happiness.

MARY JOAN VINCENT "Joan"

Honors: Class Nite (1, 4); Mission Unit (2); Student Store (4); Server, Mothers' Club Card Party (4); Office Force (4); Honor Student.

Unaffected, sweet. No two words could better portray our Joan, and in them is a volume of characterization. Scholastically, she can well be called an "intellectual giant," because the most difficult of school subjects hold no terrors for her. May every happiness be yours, Joan.

JAMES ROBERT WHITE "Jim"

Honors: Class Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Tennis (1, 4); Softball (1, 2, 3, 4); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Art Editor, TOWER (4); Class Nite Committee (3, 4); Commencement Usher (3); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); New England Music Festival (2); Honor Student.

Presenting our other Art Editor. Jim has teamed up with Tex Mills to produce the excellent drawings that you see in this book. An unusual neatness of appearance is another of his many assets. Jim is a model young man, and we expect great things of him.

MARY KATHLEEN WHITEHOUSE "Mary"

Honors: Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Office Force (4); Class Nite (1, 2, 3, 4); Vermont Music Festival (1, 2, 3, 4); Mission Unit (2); New England Music Festival (2).

Presenting our class philosopher. Mary calmly passes sound judgment on all matters that come to her attention. She rejoices, too, in banishing all gloom and melancholy, for she is a happy girl and wants all others to be just so. Mary ranks with the best of the baton twirlers, and we know she will reach the heights in all other walks of life.

DONALD ROBERT YANDOW "Don"

Honors: Class Basketball (1, 2, 4); Tennis (1, 4); Softball (1); Glee Club (3, 4); School Concert (3); St. Patrick's Day Concert (3); Assistant Editor-in-Chief, TOWER (4); Class Nite Usher (4); Basketball Usher (4); Class Nite (1, 2); Vermont Music Festival (3, 4); Mission Unit (1, 2, 3); Guard of Honor, Bishop Rice's Funeral (2); Green Mountain Boys' State (3).

Don's politeness, courtesy, and scholastic record have brought him into great favor with teachers and classmates alike, so it is small wonder that he is considered an ideal student. As Assistant Editor-in-Chief of the TOWER, he has taken many cares from the shoulders of his Chief. The best of everything, Don.

IRA EDWARD YANDOW "Ira"

Honors: Class Basketball (1); Class Nite (1, 2); Cheer Leader (4).

Ira is a young man who gets a lot of enjoyment out of life and at the same time knows how to entertain others. We have spent many pleasant hours in his company, and we will always remember his jollity and witticisms. Stay happy, Ira.

NORMAN EDWARD BOSLEY "Norm"

Honors: Class Basketball (2); Band (3, 4); School Concert (3); Class Nite (2, 4); Vermont Music Festival (3); Mission Unit (2).

Practically the only sounds that Norm ever made during his four years at Cathedral were the notes that he played on the tuba while he was a member of the band. He firmly believes that he should be seen, not heard. Stick to your belief, Norm, and you'll never get in trouble.

CORTLAND JOHN MEMOE "Cortland"

Honors: Mission Unit (1, 2).

Diligent, trusty, and ambitious are the adjectives which best describe Cortland. He does his school work quietly and quickly, and his early-morning job in no way interferes with his studies. A typical Cathedralite, Cortland has high ambitions, and we know he will realize them.

MONROE CARLTON SPENCER "Spencie"

Honors: Band (4); All-State Band (4).

Although he did not join us until our Senior year, Spencie exhibited such a capacity for friendship that he immediately became a regular member of our class. The school has benefited from his musical abilities, for he adds plenty of strength to the trumpet section of the band. Cathedral is proud to include Spencie among its graduates.

Valedictory

Tonight as we meet here for the last time, sentiments of joy and pride, of sadness and reminiscence crowd in upon us, for we have attained that goal toward which we have directed our efforts during our entire high school career.

We are strongly fortified and armed with a thorough knowledge of our secular and religious duties. In a world torn between Catholicism and paganism, a religious education such as ours is strictly necessary. Strong faith and a natural desire to do good are the most effective weapons to combat the undermining elements of government which threaten the world today.

Many "isms" today form the nucleus of the chaos and misery which engulf the people of other lands, but a thorough Catholic education is a strong bulwark against the encroachments of these fallacies on our freedom.

And now a word to our benefactors. We extend our deepest appreciation and sincerest gratitude to Father Fox, our principal, whose careful guidance and patient encouragement will leave a lasting influence on the lives of all who have been associated with him at Cathedral High School.

We are grateful to the Sisters and other members of the faculty, whose earnest effort and painstaking diligence have helped us in no small measure to attain the success which is ours tonight. It is also our strongest desire to make known our tremendous feeling of thanks to our parents, who have devoted and sacrificed so large a portion of their lives to our training.

We have planned, and dreamed, and worked for this memorable occasion; but now that the night of graduation has arrived, we are not without some reluctance. And why should it not be so? It is no small act to abandon all that has meant so much to us. We treasure every happy occurrence of our four years, and we shall long cherish the friendships formed within the walls of dear old Cathedral.

And now as we leave the friendly protection of our beloved Alma Mater, we take one last, lingering glance at that which, for us, is over. We turn with hopeful faces to the future, secure in the thought that Cathedral High School has given us all that we need to make of every one of us upright and honest citizens.

May we all, as the years go by, be found worthy to carry into the world the strong faith, noble ideals, and firm Catholic principles which Cathedral has always endeavored to inculcate in her students.

"Farewell, Cathedral High School, and may God's blessing rest upon the members of the Class of 1940!"

JOAN FAOUR.

Salutatory

The Class of 1940 extends to you warmest and sincerest greetings. Tonight our hearts are filled with gratitude and appreciation toward all those who have helped us to reach this happy culmination of our high school career.

We realize the importance of our Catholic training and recognize the place which Catholic education holds in the life of our nation today. World affairs are in a state of disorder, the horror of which may never be defined. Pagan theories and practices have so crept into governments that religion in many cases has been practically annihilated. This is possible because nations and educators, leaders and subjects have forgotten Christian principles and have built their philsophy of life and government on theories which neglect or scorn moral considerations. How can humanity reach that peace for which all good men pray, if rulers and their people alike are confused and without confidence that their efforts will be fruitful and lasting?

A Catholic system of education which can furnish sound and authoritative meaning for the terms justice, freedom, equality, and morality must be the instrument which we American Catholics wield as a means of combating the subversive influences which have penetrated every phase of national and international government.

It is the duty of those who have been fortunate enough to obtain such a Catholic education to do all in their power to prevent the evils of the present day from spreading any further throughout the world.

We graduates of the Cathedral High School, therefore, can do much in our future lives to counteract the perversive elements at work in the world; and may the Class of 1940 be especially instrumental in the return of people to God and His truth.

BARBARA HANDY.

Class History

Having successfully completed our high school days, we feel it only fitting that we should leave behind us a short history of the four happy years spent at Cathedral High School. Let us return in thought, therefore, to a few of the outstanding events which took up our time and interest during our pleasant sojourn at old Cathedral.

In September, 1936, we entered C. H. S., very much the same as any other bewildered Freshman Class, looking for the various rooms and gazing in awe at the Seniors. But we were soon duly initiated, and acquainted with the school routine.

We chose Thomas Keighley as our class president. Before long, we had the pleasure and good fortune of Father Fox's advice on Class Nite. We made our first public appearance in this presentation under a layer of grease paint (really burned cork, of course). Our plantation scene was quite a success, bringing us second prize and making ours the first Freshman Class to take honors.

Although several players from our class were members of the Jayvee basketball team, our most important contribution to that sport in our first year was in the cheering section. In May, however, many members of the Freshman Class took part in the Vermont Music Festival. The school year was almost over then, and we looked forward with eagerness to the summer vacation.

We came back to Cathedral as Sophomores, feeeling quite like old timers. With James McCormick as president, and Francis Cain, Theresa Duquette and June Shanks as his advisors, we began our second year. On Class Nite, we presented a barn dance, which was, perhaps, a little too rustic for the opinion which we had of ourselves as Sophomores.

Then came basketball. We were proud to have Bob Merola and Bob Lynch on the varsity. Cathedral was runner-up in the tournament, and Bob Merola was selected for the All-State team.

In baseball, we were represented by Paschal Barone, Marc Gutchell, and Bob Lynch. The Green and White wound up the season by winning the Northern League Championship.

Our Junior year began under the leadership of June Shanks, with Thomas Keighley, Joan Faour, and Bob Merola as other officers. Class Nite again came to our attention. Our Hollywood Hotel featured everything from prima donna Ruth Cote to cowboy Eddie Robbins.

We had a most successful season in basketball, carrying off the State Championship. We were indeed proud of the work our classmates had done on the hardwood. Bob Merola was again placed on the All-State team and for the second year was the tournament's high scorer. Our boys then left on a well-deserved trip to the New England tournament at Springfield, Mass., and the Eastern States' Catholic tournament at Newport, R. I.

Our contribution to the baseball team this year included pitchers Marc Gutchell and Jimmie McCormick, catcher Pat Barone, and outfielder Bob Lynch.

After plowing through the usually gruelling final examinations, we left for our last summer vacation as high school students.

We started our Senior year with the hope and determination of making it the best of all. The first important transaction was the election of class officers. Thomas Keighley, president, June Shanks, vice-president, Ruth Smith, secretary, and James Riley, treasurer, were chosen to guide the destinies of our class for its last year. We gave Gaston Tessier the important post of Editor-in-Chief of the TOWER, with Donald Yandow as his assistant.

At Class Nite in our Senior year we did our part with a college campus scene, the exchanging of class rings being the highlight of the occasion. Our next interest was basketball. With the teamwork of Merola, Riley, Lynch, and Bolier on the first team, and Akey, Cain, and Carty on the second, we had the best season in Cathedral's history and again took the trophy emblematic of the State Championship. Merola, Lynch, and Riley were placed on the All-State team, it being the third straight year that Merola was so honored.

With a rousing send-off, our team departed for Portland, Me., and the New England tournament, where it advanced to the semi-finals before being defeated by Bassick High School of Bridgeport, Conn., the tournament winners. Bob Merola further added to his laurels by earning a position on the All-New England team.

Glee Club, orchestra, and band practices in preparation for the May Festival were next to take up our time. We had many representatives in the school's musical organizations, and our Eileen Collins was the leader of the drum majors.

And now we are graduates, sometimes wishing we were Freshmen again, but glad that we have had these four years together, with all that they have meant to us.

JOAN VINCENT.

Class Prophecy

Graduation week had brought with it so many exciting experiences for me, that I fell ill a few days later. Delirium set in; and when my fever had abated, the doctor declared that the only treatment which would restore my lost memory of the events of the past four years would be the injection of a powerful serum which a scientist friend of his had perfected. I submitted to the treatment, but an overdose must have been administered, for besides restoring my memory of the past, it gave me a vivid and detailed knowledge of the future. I shall now proceed to relate to you what I foresaw concerning my classmates at dear old Cathedral.

I thought I was the only member of my class to be quietly settled down in a small town near Burlington. One sunny afternoon I longed once more to visit the school of my youth, so off I started for Cathedral High.

Reaching the school, I opened the door and saw an efficient looking young lady sitting at the secretary's desk. At first I did not recognize her, but a second glance assured me that she was Frances Calarco. I knew her by that happy smile which she always wore when she was with me in school fifteen years before.

Of course, our thoughts were about our classmates whom we had not seen for so long. She told me that Rita Goulet was owner of a successful restaurant just around the corner, and we planned to have lunch with her at noon.

Having finished our lunch, we started back to school. At the corner a car passed by carrying none other than Father Jimmy Madigan, who was hurrying to a sick call.

We began to reminisce, and Frances told me that Dorothy Bancroft was running a private school for young boys between the ages of fourteen and twenty-five. She liked her work. By this time we had reached school and were comfortably seated.

While we were trying to trace the remaining members of the Class of '40, the principal of Cathedral, Billie Hammond, came to the desk to give Frances some work to do, but let her off very easily when he saw me.

We shook hands, and he told me that he had a surprise for me. He led me into his office and pointed out a large television radio. It recalled to my mind Father Fox's little radio, which he had when we were at C. H. S. Father Fox could only hear our voices, but now the principal can see his young hopefuls. As Billie knew just what buttons to press, we got a New York station. A program was just beginning, and the announcer, good old Cheese Bolier, was saying, "You will now hear Ruth Cote, Metropolitan Opera singer, who is a guest of our's tonight. We are all happy to have her with us."

After Ruth's song, we heard Bernard Remily and his orchestra. Bernard had succeeded Glenn Miller.

John then introduced Bernard, who gave us a special announcement. He said that Monroe Spencer, that great swing maestro, was in the studio with his star musician, Eddie Bernard, to give a short account of his tour through post-war Europe (the war did end, you know).

As the reception was poor, we had to turn off the radio a little while, and in the meantime, we continued our chat.

Billie told me that Bob Merola was coaching at Notre Dame. He also told me that he had received a letter from Clarence Mongeon, who was a professor at Harvard. How pleased I was to hear this good news.

Just then a bell rang, and I knew that Billie was wanted; so I picked up a newspaper from Frances' desk and saw a front-page photo of Bud Riley, President of the United States, who was pictured returning from a baseball game. He had appeared at the game to toss the ball to the New York Giants' pitcher, Marc Gutchell, in the opening game of the season. In the background of the picture were June Shanks, a personal friend of Marc's; Fioretta D'Orazio, the President's private secretary; Postmaster General Vernon Rock; Mayor Jimmy White, of Burlington; Mayor Bernard LeSage, of Winooski; and Rene Bonnette, ambassador to France, all of whom were special guests of the President.

I saw no other items which interested me on this page, so I turned to the next. The first thing which caught my eye was a column concerning Rose Nanna, the popular model for bridal trousseau. She was now vacationing in Florida to get a little rest. Also on this page, I discovered that Joan Faour was owner of the "Madame Faour Chic Dress Shoppe" in Paris. Important buyers for her shoppe were Conny Mallon and Catherine Foos. On the lower right hand corner of the page was an advertisement which stated that Joan Vincent's "History of the Class of 1940" had entered its twenty-fourth edition and continues to be a best seller.

In the section called "News at a Glance," I read that Vergil Tourville had been elected president of the Vermont Dairy Cooperative, with Eugene Shepard as vice-president. Willie Reuschel had followed the vocation of his schoolday dreams. Ira Yandow was author of the best seller, "How to Take It Easy and Stay Out of Trouble." This section interested me very much, so I continued to look over the other items and found that Francis Cain was a model for men's sport clothes at "John's Sport Shop."

Nothing else attracted my notice, so I picked up the Boston Globe, which had been lying on a chair nearby. I turned to the sport page first. Here was a story of Jimmy McCormick, pitcher for the Boston Bees. Ruth Millette was Jimmy's secretary. Business manager of this club was none other than Don Akey, a former Cathedral athlete. Also from this page I learned that the prize for the quietest man in the United States had been awarded to James Michaud. It also mentioned the opening of a new athletic store on Brown Street which was managed by Bob Poirier and Robert Clavelle.

I then turned to the ladies' page, which always gives help to the women. There was an illustration of a new hair-do by Veronica Hart, who manages Perc Westmore's Shop. On the society page I learned that Mary Whitehouse was the wife of a basketball coach.

I soon decided I had done enough reading for one afternoon; but as Frances did not leave school until five o'clock, I thought I would try the radio once more.

Turning the dial, I got a Chicago station and saw Ray Mario, the famed comedian of the day. He was known all over the globe. Immediately following Ray's program, I heard and saw Tommy Keighley, conductor of the New York Symphony Orchestra. I could see many famous people in the studio. Maybe you would like to know who some of them were. In the first row was Wayne Mills, the well-known artist. Sitting near him were Winnie Huard and Jack Gadhue, movie stars; Rita Gleason, a Boston debutante; Ernest Viau, well-known typist; Edmond Parker, inventor of a new style of eyeglasses; and Bobbie Upton, designer of men's clothes.

Before closing this program, the announcer mentioned that Gordie LeMaire's "Dancing Frolics," with dancer Terry Duquette and blues singer Rita Remily would be on Broadway soon. After Tommy's program, I saw a boxing match refereed by Bob Lynch. Artie Bombard was one of the judges.

I then turned the dial to Room G and saw a Freshman English class. Richard Ludwig was the teacher. Among the students, one boy was combing his hair, and another was chewing gum; but these things happen in every school. The bell soon rang for dismissal, so I walked a few blocks down the street to an ice cream parlor owned by our old pal, Whizzer Carty.

While I was eating ice cream, Whizzer told me about some of our classmates who had settled themselves in the world. I'm sure you will want to know what he told me.

Francis Hammond and Norman Pecor were real estate brokers in Maine. Donald Villemaire was a public accountant in Burlington, earning a fine salary. Carl Gambero had turned to the teaching profession at Georgetown University.

From the teaching profession I went to the business angle and found that Deal Aseltine and Bill Cooney were automobile dealers, and Charles Dubie and Eddie Duggan owners of a large cigarette concern. Don't smoke all the profits boys.

After I left Whizzer's place, I boarded a bus for the north end of the city where Ruth McGrath and Eileen Collins were owners of a skating arena.

Having reached my destination, I found Eileen and Ruth preparing the hall for that night's skating. Ruth mentioned the good times at Cathedral, so I asked her if she knew the whereabouts of any of our classmates. She told me that Gaston Tessier was chief chemist for Dupont; John Gannon was an editor of Cosmopolitan; Norman Bosley had turned to vacation advertising; and Robert Barry was the girls' only competitor in roller skating.

Yvonne Hilliard was supervisor of a fashionable sewing school, and Ruth Smith was in the field of nursing. Jimmy Collins and Don McKenzie were stockholders in the Goodyear Tire Sompany; Cortland Memoe was a photographer; Bernard Quenneville was manager of the First National Store in Burlington; and Henry Smith was a writer of children's stories.

I took a glance at my watch and saw that it was rather late, so I said adieu to Ruth and Eileen and returned to tell Frances of my adventures.

Looking over the 1940 TOWER, we found that we had not located every one, so after checking up, Frances told me about the other members of our illustrious class. Marion McGuire had settled down to domestic duties, and Carol Griffin was matron of a very fashionable school; Barbara Handy had just finished her law course at Cornell; Marcel DesVergnes and Jack Furkey were co-proprietors of a beauty salon; Donald Yandow was a government economy expert; Eddie McGrath was manager of Wanamaker's; and Sammy Sanborn was running a dancing school.

By this time I had all the information I wanted, it was time for Frances to close her desk, and for Billie to call it a day.

RITA BLANCHARD.

Last Will and Testament

We, the members of the graduating Class of 1940 of the Cathedral High School, being about ready to leave forever the confines of our dear school, and knowing that we are of exceptionally sound intellect, do hereby draw up our last will and testament, leaving to our dear acquaintances something to remember us by (with the understanding that we will remember them in the years to come).

To Father Fox: We leave our heartfelt thanks for his patience with us and for his careful solicitude of our welfare.

To the Sisters: We leave our apologies for the many anxious moments we have caused them.

To Mr. Fox: We leave an advanced algebra class as studious and quiet as ours.

To Mr. Hammond: We leave our deepest sympathy, because we are taking most of this year's championship basketball team with us.

To Mr. Lechnyr: We leave our best wishes and plenty of raw material to form a good band and orchestra.

To Miss Fayette: We leave a better behaved Freshman Class for next year.

To Mrs. Holcomb: Eileen Collins leaves her first violin.

To the Juniors: We leave the task of giving the underclassmen good example, which we know from experience will not be followed.

To the Sophomores: We leave one nickelodeon, so they can dance before, between, and after classes.

To the Freshmen: We leave three years in which to grow up and learn how to act.

To Ken Miller: Red Merola leaves his position as captain of the varsity. Best of luck to you and the team, Ken.

To Donald Ray: George Carty leaves his shadow to pal around with.

To prospective Juniors: Ruth Cote leaves a book called, "How to Act Toward Upperclassmen."

To Kenny McGrath: Joan Faour leaves a well-worn handbook entitled, "How to Overcome a Superiority Complex."

To any up-and-coming jitterbug: Sammy Sanborn and Gordie LeMaire leave the C. H. S. Ivory Room.

To Marion Mills: A certain Senior girl leaves a nice new comb to use during recess. Don't lose this one, Marion.

To Lillian Benard and Theresa DesVergnes: Catherine Foos leaves one ideal man.

To the remaining Winooski boys: Robert Clavelle et al leave a corner on which they are bound to get a ride (to the police station) if they use their thumbs.

To Don and Angela Nanna: Rose Nanna leaves her place at C. H. S.

To Donald DeVarney: Robert Clavelle leaves his notebook of tardy excuses.

To Paul Jary: Monroe Spencer leaves his trumpet and his place in the Cathedral Band.

To her brother Bill: Rita Blanchard leaves the ability to secure fourth place in class honors.

To Vincent Welch: Caddy Lynch leaves his unerring eye for the basket.

To all the C. H. S. girls: Henry Smith leaves his best regards and his telephone number.

To little Louie Merola: Bud Riley leaves his basketball jersey. Going fishing in there, Louie?

To any girl who wishes to get her man: Willie Reuschel leaves his Class Nite outfit. Don't rush him, girls.

To Mr. Neary: We leave a student body that doesn't smoke, chew gum, throw papers around, write on the desks, or spill ink on the floors. Now, don't take us too seriously, Mr. Neary.

To any capable ball chaser: Jimmy Madigan leaves his position as manager of the baseball team.

To Sunny Cayo: Tommy Keighley leaves the piano composition, "Unfinished Symphony," and hopes he finds time to finish it.

To Art Audette: Rene Bonnette leave his syncopated parts in the band.

To his quiet little brother, Pete: Jack Gadhue, our ideal Senior, leaves his unknown methods of keeping out of mischief.

To the future chemistry students: Richard Ludwig and Carl Gambero leave a few dirty test tubes and a drawer full of broken apparatus.

To Betty Sanborn: Winnie Huard leaves her "Ipana smile."

To Oscar Dahl: Bernard LeSage leaves his secret of playing hookey without getting caught.

To Jack Hayes, Jack Boardman, and Billie Wright: Don Yandow leaves his technique of "stringing 'em along."

To anyone who considers himself unworthy of it: Marc Gutchell leaves his speaking ability.

To Isabelle Gokey: Conny Mallon leaves her strong voice to use at all school affairs. Maybe you can spare it, Conny, but you're the first girl we ever knew who was willing to give up her voice.

To Allen Barrette: Jimmy Collins leaves a large supply of hot air.

To Bud Harrington: Billie Cooney leaves his playboy technique.

To Frank Maietta: Marcel DesVergnes leaves his beautiful permanent wave.

To Jasper Santor: Vergil Tourville leaves the long and dreary ride to school from South Hero.

To any drowsy Junior: Mac McKenzie leaves seven periods in which to sleep, and one contented smile to go with them.

To the Freshman girls: We leave many socials and a very opportune Leap Year.

To Bob Brown: Ray Mario leaves his bass voice and his wonderful head of hair.

To her sister Margie: Terry Duquette leaves Glenn Miller's recording of "Little Brown Jug."

To all fishermen: Deal Aseltine leaves the address to his father's fish market.

To any one who wishes them: Jack Furkey leaves a few hints on how to bluff in class.

To any member of next year's basketball team: Cheese Bolier leaves jersey number three, a bit battle worn, but still worthy of a good warrior.

To some very reliable Junior: Gaston Tessier leaves his position as Editor of the TOWER.

To Bob McGowan: Bobbie Upton leaves a police permit to carry more than twenty players in his car to the ball park.

Signed and sealed this eleventh day of June, nineteen hundred and forty.

Green Mountain Boys' State Camp

Each summer for the past few years, various organizations in cities and towns throughout the State have made it possible for several members of the Junior Class in their respective high schools to attend the Green Mountain Boys' State Camp held at Norwich University.

This Camp, which is conducted under the direct supervision of the American Legion, was originated for the purpose of instilling into the minds of the attending students an interest in the affairs of their Government and the qualifications necessary for good citizenship. While at Camp, the boys have available for their use all forms of recreation under trained and competent leaders.

The members of the present Senior Class who attended the Camp last year are: Thomas Keighley, William Hammond, Norman Pecor, Richard Ludwig, Robert Lynch, Gaston Tessier, James Riley, Donald Yandow, and Francis Abare.

Junior Farewell

We are gathered here this evening to bid a last adieu to the members of the Class of 1940. The four years spent at Cathedral High School have been their happiest ones, but sorrow as well as gladness fills their hearts tonight.

We Juniors, who have spent three of these years with them, also feel their sorrow. An outstanding class in all activities, the present graduates have shown us the way to true happiness. Their sportsmanship and splendid class spirit, never to be forgotten, will set a precedent to every class entering Cathedral High School.

As they enter into a new world, new hardships and troubles will come their way, but because of their staunch characters, they will overcome all obstacles. New friendships will replace the old, but in the hearts of all the members of the Class of 1940 there will always be reserved one special place for the friends of their high school years.

In the name of the Junior Class, I now bid a fond farewell to you, the graduates of 1940, asking God to bless you in the future as He has in the past.

What Is It?

There is something on the wall.
  Is it a ventilator?
We asked our teacher what it was;
  She said, "I'll tell you later."
She did not tell us any more;
And we never reached the very core
Until we heard a deep voice say,
"Have all the girls their cuffs today?"

After School

Students have to write their lines
  For cutting up all day.
'Cause instead of being good in school,
  They prefer an hour's play.
Students on the honor roll
  Just live life in a book;
While other students of the school
  Pass tests by hook or crook.
Sixth period every afternoon
  It always is the same;
Students get a jug slip
  If Father calls their name.
But really we are not so bad
  As we seem to be,
For we are living in a land
  Where every one is free.

AT THE SEMI-FORMAL

Glee Club Semi-Formal

Inaugurating something new in social events at Cathedral High School, the Girls' Glee Club this winter sponsored a semi-formal, leap-year dance. The Ivory Room, resplendently decorated in a color scheme of red, white, and blue, was the scene of the joyous function.

The grand march formed in the hall, also prettily decked with streamers, and proceeded to the Ivory Room to the tune of music furnished by a twelve-piece orchestra. After passing through the receiving line, the guests mingled and danced until eleven-thirty. The event, which attracted 125 people, proved immensely popular and bids fair to become an annual occurrence.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Rivers, Miss Teresa M. Fayette, and Mr. John Shadroui acted as chaperons.

Class Nite

The high degree of excellence attained in our annual Class Nite presentation was exceeded this year when the four classes again vied with one another in an effort to capture the prizes awarded for the best stunts.

Capacity crowds attended all three performances, but the patrons who witnessed the last night's show got the biggest thrill as each class frantically applied finishing touches to its act in a last, supreme bid for honors.

After seriously considering the originality, interpretation, acting, etc., of each stunt, the judges awarded first prize to the Junior act, a clever presentation of a miniature minstrel. Second honors went to the Freshmen, who put on a pretty fairyland scene.

Close runners-up to the winners were the Sophomores, whose classroom skit included many original and skillful numbers, and the Seniors, who offered an interesting take-off of modern college campus life.

Music

With the return of Mr. Joseph F. Lechnyr to the school on a full-time basis after his serious illness of the past two years, Cathedral High School's band and orchestra attained a greater degree of excellence than ever before. The personnel of both organizations has increased considerably, and other students are planning to become members of the band or orchestra next year.

Mrs. James M. Holcomb is continuing her fine work this year as director of Cathedral's Glee Clubs. Our High School will be represented at this year's concerts by a Girls' Glee Club, a mixed chorus, and double quartet. Mrs. Holcomb has put much time and effort into the training of these groups, and excellent showings are expected of them at the May Festival.

Our musical organizations have been much in demand since the start of school last September. The band took part in all civic parades, played at Cathedral's basketball games, and was greatly responsible for the success of the combined Band Concert held in March at the Memorial Auditorium. Our orchestra, besides playing at many banquets at the school and elsewhere, furnished the music for the large St. Patrick's Day dinner held for the benefit of the Bishop DeGoesbriand Hospital.

Band, orchestra, and Glee Clubs have all been practicing daily for this year's Vermont Music Festival. The music groups of Cathedral High School have always received high ratings at this event, and our directors are making every effort to obtain an even higher grade for Cathedral at the 1940 Festival.

Mr. W. L. Hammond, Coach and Teacher

In September, 1920, Mr. William L. Hammond came to Cathedral High School as head coach of basketball, and in March, 1921, the four-year-old parochial school astounded sports enthusiasts by winning the basketball championship of the State of Vermont.

Coach Hammond was the guiding light in the success of the Green and White quintet in 1921, and the records compiled by his teams for the twenty years that he has been at Cathedral indicate that his first championship was more than a coincidence. Hammond-coached teams from 1921 to 1940, inclusive, have run up 306 victories and suffered only 97 defeats for an average of .759, a record that can be equalled by few school or college coaches in the course of two decades.

Besides the 1921 outfit, three other Green and White basketball teams have brought the State Title to Cathedral, the 1922, 1939, and 1940 quintets being returned champions. In 1923, 1928, 1931 and 1938, the Little Indians were runners-up in the State tournament; and year after year, the fine teams turned out at Cathedral High School prove more and more conclusively that Mr. Hammond is truly the dean of Vermont coaches.

But the esteem in which Mr. Hammond is held rests not entirely on his excellent record as a basketball mentor, for he is equally well known as a successful teacher. By his ready sympathy and clear understanding, he has gained the confidence and respect of his students and has been an inspiration to each succeeding class.

May the Cathedral High School be fortunate enough to have Mr. Hammond associated with it for many years to come.

State Champs

Our 1940 hoop record was the greatest ever compiled by a basketball team at Cathedral High School and one of the best in the history of basketball in the State of Vermont. The exploits of this year's Little Indians in successfully defending the title won in 1939 after an absence of seventeen years will never be forgotten by anyone interested in Vermont scholastic basketball.

Cathedral's record for the regular season showed seventeen victories and one defeat, the only loss coming at the hands of a junior college team, and the boys later avenged this defeat. At the outset of the campaign, Cathedral was tabbed as the team to beat, and during the regular season Coach Hammond's sparkling outfit lived up to expectations by vanquishing every high school quintet of any repute within a reasonable distance of Burlington.

The Little Indians entered the State play-offs in Burlington as pre-tourney favorites and ran true to form by copping their second successive State Title.

VARSITY SQUAD

State Champs

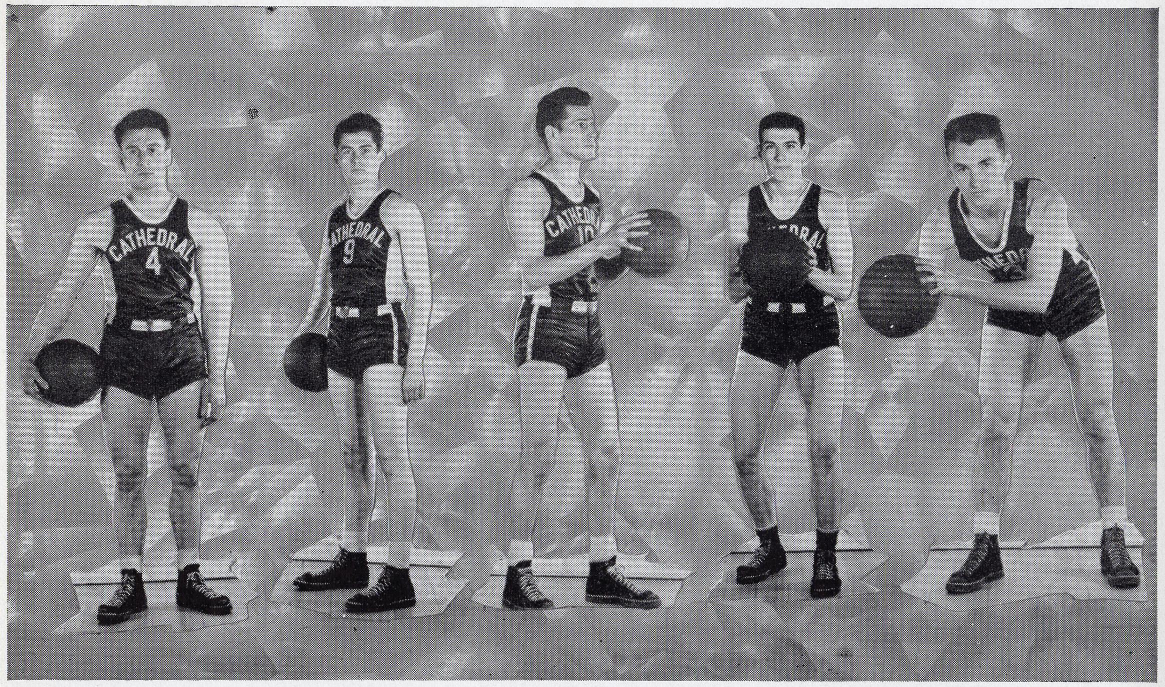
The Green and White hoopsters then competed in the New England Tournament at Portland, Maine, where they advanced to the semi-finals before being defeated by Bassick High School, of Bridgeport, Connecticut, the ultimate champions.

The season in detail:

Cathedral 18
St. Michael's J. V. 9
Just a tune-up as Coach Hammond tried out several combinations. Evelti assured himself of a forward position, and Miller and Bolier battled it out for the vacant guard post.

Cathedral 43
Vermont Frosh 34
The Little Indians got into some more fast company but pulled out another victory as Evelti poured in 23 points. Pal got some big help from Merola and Lynch in the second chukker as the Green and White went to town over the collegians.

CAPT. MEROLA LYNCH EVELTI RILEY BOLIER



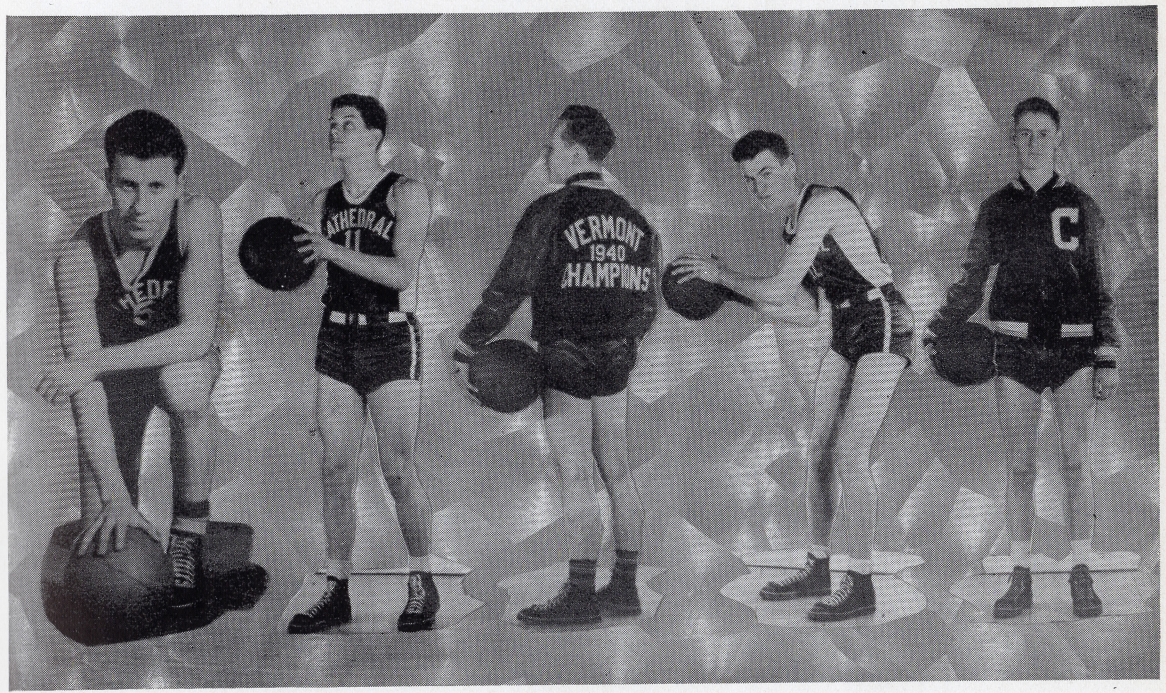
Cathedral 48
Spaulding 22
In a non-league game, Cathedral dedicated Barre's new gymnasium by bowling over the Granite City team with ease. The Green's high-scoring trio of Merola, Lynch, and Evelti got together for a 36-point total, Merola accounting for 16.

Cathedral 57
St. Mary's 11
The St. Albans parochialites were no match for the rampaging Indians as each of the ten players who saw action scored at least two points. The trio totaled 35, Lynch leading with 15. Riley, Bolier, and Miller continued to keep our opponents' scores at a low ebb.

Cathedral 35
Mt. St. Joseph's 21
The enemy threw a scare into the Indians' camp by keeping pace with Cathedral until the last quarter, but our boys had the stuff and made it number five.

Cathedral 46
Rutland 34
The Red Raiders were rated the best in the South, but they were eliminated as a threat to Cathedral's crown as Bob Merola's 20 points easily made the Green and White victorious.

CAPT.-ELECT MILLER CAIN CARTY AKEY BROWN



Cathedral 59
Spaulding 25
The defending State Champions opened their Northern League schedule by drubbing Spaulding for the second time this season. Evelti got a good start in his quest of the League's scoring crown by rolling 20 points through the hoop; Merola and Lynch had 13 and 12 respectively. It was the seventh straight for the Indians and raised to 44 their average points per game.

Cathedral 34
Burlington 11
The victory we wanted most! With offense and defense alike working to perfection, the Little Indians drubbed their intracity rivals by the greatest margin ever to separate teams from the two schools. Our Lynch-Evelti-Merola trio scored 30 of its team's points as Riley, Bolier, and Miller cooperated to hold the entire Burlington outfit to 11.

Cathedral 25
Vermont Junior College 29
Even a winning streak must come to an end. In a game held at Montpelier, the Green and White succumbed to a strong Vermont Junior College five after a hard battle. The boys went down fighting, however, and looked forward to the return tilt with their conquerors.

Cathedral 34
Montpelier 15
In their second Northern League game, the Indians easily outclassed the Solons as Evelti and Merola topped the scorers with 11 points apiece.

Cathedral 43
Bellows Free Academy 25
Evelti had another 20-point game as the Green and White got a better hold on first place in the League standing.

Cathedral 52
Spaulding 25
The trio added 40 points to its credit as Evelti again chalked up 20 counters in his merry chase for scoring honors in the Northern Loop.

Cathedral 35
Burlington 30
Not the victory that we had in the first game with our rivals, but after the first few minutes there was no doubt of the outcome. The Blue and White made a splurge near the end of the game, but couldn't close the gap. This second win over Burlington gave Cathedral Title Number One for the season.

Cathedral 31
St. Michael's J. V. 20
No trouble getting another verdict over the College Jayvees as guards Bolier, Riley, and Miller accounted for 14 points.

Cathedral 31
Vermont Junior College 23
Sweet revenge! Bolier, Merola, and Evelti paced the Indians as they turned back the only team that had beaten them. The boys took a comfortable lead in the second quarter and coasted the rest of the way.

Cathedral 31
Montpelier 12
The seventh straight League victory and Title Number Two. Johnny Bolier strengthened his hold on the guard position, Evelti continued to pile up his total points, and Merola played his usual magnificent floor game.

Cathedral 48
Bellows Free Academy 28
The last regularly scheduled game of the season. Capt. Bob Merola banged in 16, and Evelti chalked up 14 as he established a new League record of 121 points. In eight Northern League games, Cathedral's average scoring was 42 points, the opposition's average being only 21.4 points per game.

Cathedral 42
Hartford 29
A pre-tournament game in which Bob Lynch sharpened his eye by dropping 17 points through the net. The Indians easily brushed aside the highly-touted Hartfordites as Bob led the trio on a 36-point rampage and our guards held Hartford's forwards in check.

Cathedral 23
Rutland 16
The Indians took things easy in winning their preliminary game of the tournament. The substitutes played most of the game against a rough Rutland outfit.

Cathedral 36
Bennington 35
A thriller from start to finish. An inspired Bennington team with a great leader in Jerome Levin made the Little Indians play their best basketball to eke out a victory. But Cathedral proved that it was a great team by rising to the occasion when the going looked tough. Bob Merola was a thorn in the side of the opposition as he tossed in 14 points, Lynch assisted with 12, and Ken Miller got an early reservation in the hall of fame when he sank the winning point from the foul stripe in the overtime period.

Cathedral 42
Burlington 37
Bob Merola established himself as the greatest schoolboy basketball player in the State in many years as he again led Cathedral to the championship. Red's 18 points were too much for old Edmunds as the Blue and White went down fighting. For the third consecutive year, Merola was placed on the All-State team, and also for the third year in succession he was the tournament's high scorer, sharing honors this year with Levin of Bennington. Each had 42 points. Lynch and

State Champs

Riley were also chosen All-State as the Indians made it Title Number Three for the season.

Cathedral 28
Stratford, Conn., 22

The Indians surprised the critics by whipping a big team from Connecticut. Stratford had been runner-up in the Nutmeg tournament, but Cathedral took the game by a comfortable margin as Merola's beautiful ball-handling took the fancy of the crowd.

Cathedral 26
Bassick (Bridgeport, Conn.) 42

The eventual New England Champions took the part of magicians in the third quarter (after our boys, with Merola and Evelti hitting the net regularly, had fought Bassick on even terms throughout the first half). The Green and White gave a good account of itself, however, and Merola gained a place on the All-New England team in company with the other basketball greats.

The Little Indians' laurels in a nutshell:

The State Championship for the second successive year.

The Northern League Championship without the loss of a game.

Three victories over our city rival, Burlington High School.

A victory in the first round of the New England tournament.

Cathedral also boasts of:

Bob Merola, the greatest basketball player ever to represent Cathedral High School. This year, Bob was chosen All-State for the third time; he was the tournament's highest scorer for the third successive year; and he was named on the All-New England team at Portland, Maine.

Bud Riley, All-State guard, and Bob Lynch, All-State forward.

Pal Evelti, the Northern League's highest scorer. Pal set a new record by scoring 121 points in eight games.

Merola, Lynch, and Riley, besides being picked for the All-State team, were also placed, together with Evelti, on the All-Northern League team. Johnny Bolier was chosen as a guard on the second All-League team.

Girls' Basketball

Although not playing outside teams until late in the season, the girls' varsity basketball team this year compiled an excellent record and, with five sophomores in its line-up, is pointing toward an even more prosperous season next year.

Early in January, Miss Fayette took her team to Winooski for a game with the Mill City lassies. Despite Herculean effort on the part of Monica Rock, who scored 15 of her team's 19 points, our girls went down to defeat, 39-17.

On February 20, Cathedral broke into the win column by easily beating Winooski in a return engagement, 33-19. The Rock sisters teamed up to score 31 points between them, Monica getting 17, and Nancy 14.

Our team was host to the Essex Junction High School girls March 6 and scored an easy 54-33 victory. Connie Papin and the Rock sisters were in rare form and, assisted by some fine guarding on the part of Rita Goulet, Norma Remily, and Doris Lawrence, experienced no trouble subduing their opponents.

The last game of the season for the Green and White was a return tilt with Essex Junction on March 11. Our girls again showed their superiority over the suburban lassies, scoring a clean-cut 42-22 victory. Monica Rock, with 20 points, and Connie Papin, with 16, were Cathedral's high scorers.

With only Rita Goulet to be lost by graduation, Miss Fayette is looking forward to an excellent season for her team next year.

Baseball

Although bad weather prevented Cathedral's baseball team from getting many outdoor practices before the opening game of the season, the Little Indians have already served notice that they are contenders for the 1940 Northern League championship by defeating Montpelier 13-12. Cathedral played fine ball afield and collected twelve hits, including two home runs. Bob Poirier collected one circuit wallop, while the other, the game-winning blow in the eighth inning, came from the bat of Frank Cain. Frank drove Pal Evelti over the plate ahead of him to give the Indians a victory. Jim McCormick pitched fine ball until he tired in the seventh, when he was relieved by Marc Gutchell, who finished the game.

Besides McCormick and Gutchell, Coach Hammond has on hand three other members of last year's team: Poirier, second baseman, and Cain and Bob Lynch in the outfield. Lynch led the 1939 team in hitting. Newcomers who seem assured of positions are catcher Ken McGrath, first baseman Bud Riley, Bill Blanchard at short, and Pal Evelti at third. At the time this article was written, Ray Brown, Howard Mallory, and Tom Keighley were fighting it out for the third outfield position.

Reserves included Rob Abare, catcher, and Wilfred Dennis and Don DeVarney, pitchers. The reserve infielder's position was still wide open, Bob Upton, Vin Welch, and Bob Clavelle being the leading candidates.

Manager Jim Madigan announced the schedule as follows:

May	3	Montpelier, here.
May	7	Bellows Free Academy, there.
May	10	Spaulding, here.
May	14	Winooski, here.
May	18	Burlington, there.

June	5	Spaulding, there.

Golf

Boasting a team that placed fourth in the interscholastic tournament held at Barre last October, Cathedral's golf forces tee off this spring in the hopes of hanging up more victories.

Besides making such a good showing at Barre, our golfers also added to their laurels last fall by twice defeating the team representing Burlington High School. Frank Cain showed the way in both victories over the Blue and White, turning in an 86 and an 85 in the first and second matches respectively.

Cain, Don Akey, Ray Brown, and Shorty Gagnon, all of whom represented Cathedral in the State tournament, will be on hand again this spring. Tom Keighley and Sammy Sanborn, additional players who took part in the matches with Burlington, will also be available.

Individual results in the matches with Burlington are as follows, Cathedral's scores being given first in each case:

First Match		Second Match
Cain (5)	Gagnon (5)	Cain (6)	Sanborn (4)
R. Stafford (0)	Pearl (0)	R. Stafford (0)	Scott (0)
Akey (0)	Keighley (4)	Akey (1)	Brown (3)
Cheeseman (4)	Waldo (0)	Cheeseman (0)	T. Stafford (0)
Brown (0)	Sanborn (2)	Keighley (5)	Gagnon (6)
T. Stafford (7)	Scott (0)	Pearl (0)	Waldo (0)

Tennis

For the first time since 1937, the tennis outlook at Cathedral High School is extremely bright. Tom Keighley, one of the three returning veterans and last year's most consistent point-getter, is on hand and is looking forward to his most successful season. Art Bombard and Jim White, the other two hold-overs from the 1939 outfit, did particularly well in doubles last year and are pointing toward equal successes in the singles this season. Don Akey, who was lost to the team last year because of a leg injury, Don Yandow, and Fred Connor complete the squad.

Although the schedule has not yet been completed, arrangements are already being made to book matches with many teams. Backers of the Cathedral racket-wielders are expecting a successful season for the Green and White and have high hopes that the boys will go far in this year's State tournament.

Tribute

All our old team was on hand
For basketball this year;
Buck Hard did lots of worrying
According to what we hear.
With Merola, Riley, and Miller,
Evelti and Bobbie Lynch,
And also Johnny Bolier,
It surely was a cinch.
It mattered not much if the finals
Were played in our own land;
But our boys were surely in them
And fought to beat the band.
They won a great big silver cup
And lots of honors, too.
And several coaches won't recover
For another year or two.

The Senior Class Dares

The 1941 basketball team to equal the record of the 1940 champions.

A few students to date for dances at school.

Charles Dooley to give the other girls a break.

Kenneth McGrath to match Joe Louis.

Mary Collins to accept a date.

Isabelle Gokey to use less paint.

Fred Connor to put a little spirit in his cheerleading.

Betty Sanborn to grow up.

George Malloy to stay in his own class.

Bobbie Lane to give up dancing.

Reid Payne to be on next year's basketball team.

Vincent Welch to lead a band.

Laura Palm to give a little of her height to some freshman.

Frank Maietta to stay away from Pine Street.

Ruth Kirkbride to act natural.

Paul Jary to find a new trumpet pal.

Jack Lynch to follow his brother's footsteps.

Muriel Leffort to graduate.

Kenneth Akey to stay out of the jug.

Mary Brooks to get off her high horse.

Angelo Evelti to stay away from Boston.

Kenneth Miller to forget Shelburne.

The 1941 TOWER Board to produce a book as good as this one.

We Often Wonder Why

Mr. Fox throws the x's out of the window in algebra class.

Mr. Hammond doesn't give up hope in chemistry class.

Mr. Rivers doesn't tell his economics class which political party he belongs to.

Henry Smith wanders into the Senior girls' home room.

Robert Clavelle goes home by Colchester Avenue.

We needed an office force.

Ruth Cote buys expensive shoes.

June Shanks is always buying records.

Rene Bonnette wants a tenor sax.

Ruth McGrath talks so much.

Francis Sanborn wants a farm.

Marc Gutchell is often seen on Cherry Street.

Gordon LeMaire doesn't move to Burlington.

Rita Remily can forget so easily.

Terry Duquette likes to stay after school.

Donald Yandow takes time to study.

James McCormick is so sleepy.

Ruth Millette is so punctual.

Donald Akey gets the Gate(s).

Oscar doesn't (Dahl) up.

There are so many feuds among the Senior girls.

Bob Upton developed his technique.

Class Song

CATHEDRAL HIGH—ADIEU

Well, here we are, yes, here we are,
To give our last adieu.
We leave the scenes of high school days,
To seek ones that are new.

Well, we were friends and you were friends,
And friends must hate to part.
But ever will Cathedral High
Be cherished in each heart.

CHORUS

Our dear school we'll ne'er forget
Thru all the years to come,
And oft' our glances backward turn
To the days of work and fun.

Looking Back

With very deep regrets, we realize that we have completed our four years of high school. Lest we become further proof of that old saying, "Out of sight, out of mind," we leave behind us this edition of the TOWER, which records our fondest memories and which we hope will serve as a substitute for us at Cathedral High School.

Careful planning, unceasing toil, and numberless worries have been attendant upon the publication of this book; our cares and anxieties, however, have been shared by others, and we take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks to:

Father Fox, without whose kind permission and whole-hearted cooperation the publication of this book would not have been possible.

Mr. R. Howard O'Connor, for his gracious assistance in the editing of our copy.

The employees of the Free Press Printing Company, for their invaluable aid and welcome suggestions in the planning of our book.

The Vermont Engraving Company, for its very helpful advice and splendid work in the making of our cuts.

The Senior typists, for the great care and concern which they showed in preparing the copy for the printers.

All our readers, for their understanding consideration of our many shortcomings in the publication of a book.

THE 1940 TOWER BOARD.

Our Advertisers

THE PERSONS whose advertisements appear in the following pages have made it possible for us to publish this TOWER. We have set aside this space in order to convey our thanks to these people for the good will and benevolence which they have shown toward us, and we sincerely hope that our readers will aid us in further showing our appreciation to them by patronizing the businesses and professions which they represent.
